SUBJECT: SESSION SUMMARY (C/SS)

TO: DT-S (ATTN: [REDACTED] SG1J

1. (S-SS) Statistics: Viewer: 018
 Session date: 29 JUL 88
 Start time: 1340
 End time: 1425
 Mode of operation: SOLO
 PI: Hot & sleepy
 AV: Terrorist situations

2. (S-SS) Cueing: Determine if any acts of terrorism will occur between 31 Jul 88 and 8 AUG 88, in reaction to the Iranian Jet Air Bus downing in the Persian Gulf.

3. (S-SS) Tasking: Determine:

- a. Will/will not there be any event?
- b. If so, what will it be?
- c. If so, describe the projected results.

4. (S-SS) Comments:

a. The session started with a Stage 6 time line, marked with the individual days. The entire timeline was not probed for "peak feelings", but acted only as a cueing for tasking myself with the problem on a day-to-day basis.

b. Perceptions were coming quickly and strongly throughout the session, until page 16, when I suddenly realized that the perceptions for the string of days "fit together" almost too well, and I began to fear ADL drive. I stopped the session at that point.

c. The overall gist of the entire session (if it is not all ADL drive) would appear that an American sailor on R&R in a city near the Persian Gulf is taken hostage in an out-of-the-way place he frequents, after his ship has returned to port after being in some sort of sea battle.

5. (S-SS) Results: Perceptions received by probing the signal line on a day-to-day basis were as follows:

a. 31JUL88: Structure on water is passed by (AOL: a rocket). It is a minor incident, and doesn't really disturb anyone or anything.

b. 01AUG88: Rough feeling causing sick feeling in stomach, and bumping feeling. This was followed by a passage from roughness into smooth calm. There is a perception of rough land "nearby". (AOL: ship entering a harbor from the high seas.)

c. 02AUG88: Feeling of land. Impression of a male person running down a massive stone area in an enclosed area of a city. He feels a mischievous sense of pleasure at knowing of a "secret place", and not telling anyone else about it. There is a definite "back alley" feeling to the place. In the same place, there was a feeling of at least two persons who were just observing (AOL: observing him).

d. 03AUG88: Quiet, peaceful feeling accompanied by an "R&R", "easy life" feeling.

e. 04AUG88: Perceptions of being on water, looking with longing and displeasure out at land. "Drudgery" feeling. There was the feeling of being pulled away from what I really wanted to do, against my will.

f. 05AUG88: Generally no outstanding feelings at all except quiet and calm.

g. 06AUG88: The impression that there was some kind of a battle. There was a very physical impression of being suddenly thrown to one side as the floor "lurched" in one direction, accompanied by a loud sound. This was followed by a return to smooth water with large waves.

h. 07AUG88: Again there was the same impression of being on land. There was a vague visual of a city on very uneven land with narrow streets and some tall buildings. The person viewed earlier (c., above) was back again, ending with an impression that there was a quarrel of some kind. This was followed by the impressions that the person was riding in a very rough-riding vehicle which was going up into very rough high country. There was an accompanying feeling that he was riding in a very strange position, and his hands were tied behind him. The ground outside the vehicle looked very yellowish.

j. 08AUG88: I found the same person quiet, "wondering". His hands were still tied.
