DRAFT WORKING PAPER

SUMMARY OF INFORMATION

USMC LTC William (Rich) Higgins remains projected to be released from captivity during the week of 31 July 1988 to 8 August 1988 (as of this date - 2 August 1988). Higgins is currently located at Bsaba (ENCLOSURE 1); he will be released along the southern outskirts of the Beirut International Airport. The Syrians play a role in recuperating Higgins. Higgins will then be brought to an embassy; he is expected to abide by procedures set forth by the UN.

Rudolf Cordes and Frank Reed will be released soon following the release of Higgins. Robert Polhill will then be released soon thereafter; and, will be followed by Alan Steen and Joseph Cicippio. Edward Tracy is located five miles north of the military barracks (surrounded by the Syrians). There is contradictory reporting on the location of Sutherland who appears to be both in the Beqaa Valley on the one hand and north of the military barracks with Turner.

Further refinement of information related to the Israeli hostages indicate the hotel located at Red Number 1 (ENCLOSURE 2), with the brown garage type building bearing the Red Letter "T" located at Red Number 2 (ENCLOSURE 2). The Israeli hostages have also been located in the area at Red Number 3 (ENCLOSURE 2). The Israeli hostages will be released as a result of pressure brought upon by the Israeli (forces?). Terry Waite will be released in about late August; the last hostage to be released remains Terry Anderson whose release is currently projected for the middle of September 1988.
