- E. SESSION SUMMARY:

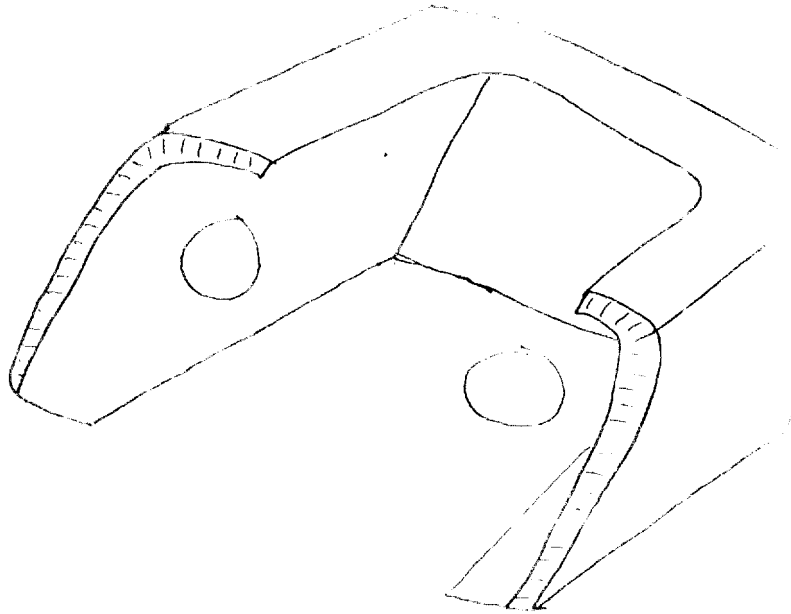

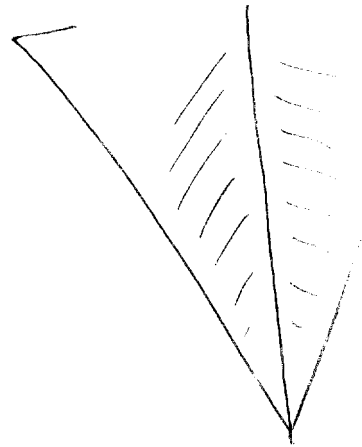

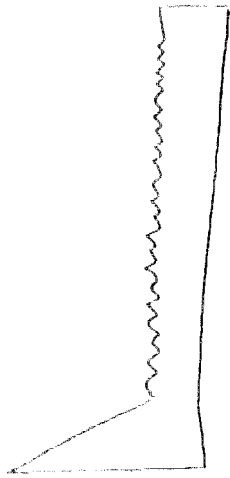

The target consists of a complex of structures which have a military orientation. There is the concept of "surrounded". The structures of this complex are mostly above ground but there is a "partially below" or "buried" aspect to the target. The target is predominately involved with the concepts of projection and retrieval. The system is associated with "large scale generation" of energy and it can be very dangerous.

There is an experimental and R&D aspect to the target, though the target feels that it is not fully functioning. There is a curving wooden aspect or feature associated with the target. Another feature has a "scoop-like" profile. There are numerous sets of parallel present as well as rounded objects reminiscent of boulders.

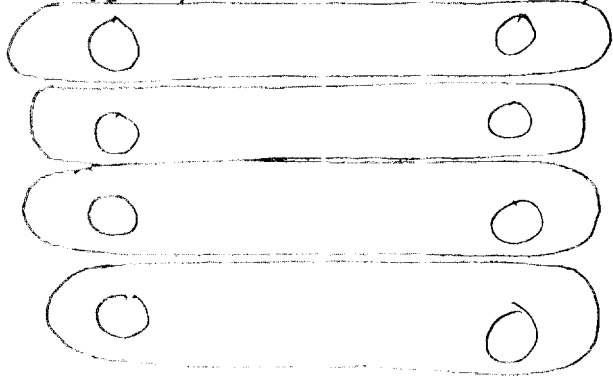

It is windy here and the wind can be very strong. There is steep terrain with a canyon-like appearance. It is reminiscent of a large, curving canyon. There are stacked wooden pieces (see diagram on page ii). Colors are predominately blue, gray and transparent.

Viewer's Note: This target really got me agitated. It felt as if my skin was crawling. There were 100's of prickly sensations under my skin. Felt as if I was being zapped by something.

Guardian gateway, the torii entrance to Itsuku Shima Shrine shelters a sacred corner of Hiroshima Bay from the lights of change that multiply along the shore. Much of Japan wears a new face, but in many villages and island byways of the Inland Sea, the grace and traditions of the past stubbornly linger on.
