Declassified in Part - Sanitized Copy Approved for Release 201	13/03/18 : CIA-RDP96R01136R001202250003-5 5X1
Directorate of Intelligence	Top Secret
	25X1

Afghanistan Situation Report

25X1

16 April 1984

Top Secret

NESA M 84-10160CX SOVA M 84-10061CX

17 April 1984

25X1

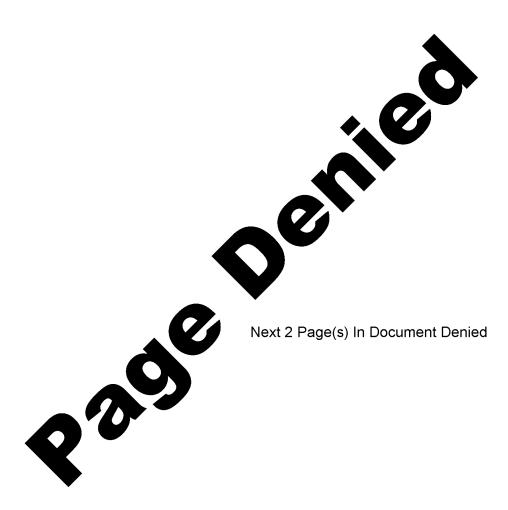

OPV 087

Declassified i	in Part - Sanitized Copy Approved for Release 2013/03/18 : CIA-RDP96R0113	6R001202250003-5
-			25 X 1
	AFGHANISTAN SITUATION REPORT
·	CONTENTS
		1	25 X 1
•
•
		2
	SOVIETS CONTINUE OPERATIONS IN THE SHOMALI Major operations are already underway in the Shomali area north	3
	of Kabul.		25 X 1
	CORDOVEZ ACCOMPLISHES LITTLE Kabul's latest proposal is a step back from last year's Soviet—	3
	Afghan position on troop withdrawals and almost certainly is unacceptable to Pakistan.		25X1
	IN BRIEF	5
		· · · · · · ·	25X1
		7
•
	17 April NESA M	1984 84-10160CX

Declassified in Part - Sanitized Copy Approved for Release 2013/03/18 : CIA-RDP96R01136R001202250003-5

Declassified in Part - Sar	nitized Copy Approved for Rele	ase 2013/03/18 : C IA-RDF	296R01136R00120225	50003-5 25 X 1
				23/(1
This docur Asian Ana	ment is prepared weekly by th lysis and the Office of Soviet	e Office of Near Eastern a Analysis.	and South	25X1 25X1

SOVIETS CONTINUE OPERATIONS IN THE SHOMALI According to US Embassy sources, the Soviets bombed several villages and conducted ground operations in the Shomali last week, inflicting high civilian casualities. Insurgents from the Panjsher Valley and Paghman areas were involved in the fighting, and resistance was fierce. Guerrillas reportedly shot down a helicopter over Shakardara on 10 or 11 April and destroyed a large number of armored vehicles. desertions from Afghan forces are higher than in previous campaigns in the area. Comment: Current Soviet operations in the Shomali may be the prelude to a larger offensive against resistance forces north of Kabul. The Soviets may try to move units garrisoned in Kabul and Bagram through the Shomali area to the Panjsher Valley. They probably will attempt to mass troops around the valley in an effort to interdict insurgent supply and escape routes before striking. CORDOVEZ ACCOMPLISHES LITTLE UN Special Representative Cordovez told the US Ambassador in Islamabad that the main accomplishment of his recent discussions in Tehran, Kabul, and Islamabad was obtaining an Afghan proposal for two-track negotiations—Kabul and Islamabad would negotiate about ending outside interference while Kabul and Moscow negotiated the withdrawal of Soviet troops. The Pakistanis, however, still refuse to negotiate with Kabul. a primary objective of the trip was to keep the talks going. Cordovez, who has returned to Kabul, hopes	classified in Part	- Sanitized Copy Approved for Release 2013/03/18 : CIA-RDP96R01136R0012	02250003-5
According to US Embassy sources, the Soviets bombed several villages and conducted ground operations in the Shomali last week, inflicting high civilian casualties. Insurgents from the Panjsher Valley and Paghman areas were involved in the fighting, and resistance was fierce. Guerrillas reportedly shot down a helicopter over Shakardara on 10 or 11 April and destroyed a large number of armored vehicles. desertions from Afghan forces are higher than in previous campaigns in the area. Comment: Current Soviet operations in the Shomali may be the prelude to a larger offensive against resistance forces north of Kabul. The Soviets may try to move units garrisoned in Kabul and Bagram through the Shomali area to the Panjsher Valley. They probably will attempt to mass troops around the valley in an effort to interdict insurgent supply and escape routes before striking. CORDOVEZ ACCOMPLISHES LITTLE UN Special Representative Cordovez told the US Ambassador in Islamabad that the main accomplishment of his recent discussions in Tehran, Kabul, and Islamabad was obtaining an Afghan proposal for two-track negotiations—Kabul and Islamabad would negotiate about ending outside interference while Kabul and Moscow negotiated the withdrawal of Soviet troops. The Pakistanis, however, still refuse to negotiate with Kabul. a primary objective of the trip was to keep
According to US Embassy sources, the Soviets bombed several villages and conducted ground operations in the Shomali last week, inflicting high civilian casualties. Insurgents from the Panjsher Valley and Paghman areas were involved in the fighting, and resistance was fierce. Guerrillas reportedly shot down a helicopter over Shakardara on 10 or 11 April and destroyed a large number of armored vehicles. desertions from Afghan forces are higher than in previous campaigns in the area. Comment: Current Soviet operations in the Shomali may be the prelude to a larger offensive against resistance forces north of Kabul. The Soviets may try to move units garrisoned in Kabul and Bagram through the Shomali area to the Panjsher Valley. They probably will attempt to mass troops around the valley in an effort to interdict insurgent supply and escape routes before striking. CORDOVEZ ACCOMPLISHES LITTLE UN Special Representative Cordovez told the US Ambassador in Islamabad that the main accomplishment of his recent discussions in Tehran, Kabul, and Islamabad was obtaining an Afghan proposal for two-track negotiations—Kabul and Islamabad would negotiate about ending outside interference while Kabul and Moscow negotiated the withdrawal of Soviet troops. The Pakistanis, however, still refuse to negotiate with Kabul. a primary objective of the trip was to keep
According to US Embassy sources, the Soviets bombed several villages and conducted ground operations in the Shomali last week, inflicting high civilian casualties. Insurgents from the Panjsher Valley and Paghman areas were involved in the fighting, and resistance was fierce. Guerrillas reportedly shot down a helicopter over Shakardara on 10 or 11 April and destroyed a large number of armored vehicles. desertions from Afghan forces are higher than in previous campaigns in the area. Comment: Current Soviet operations in the Shomali may be the prelude to a larger offensive against resistance forces north of Kabul. The Soviets may try to move units garrisoned in Kabul and Bagram through the Shomali area to the Panjsher Valley. They probably will attempt to mass troops around the valley in an effort to interdict insurgent supply and escape routes before striking. CORDOVEZ ACCOMPLISHES LITTLE UN Special Representative Cordovez told the US Ambassador in Islamabad that the main accomplishment of his recent discussions in Tehran, Kabul, and Islamabad was obtaining an Afghan proposal for two-track negotiations—Rabul and Islamabad would negotiate about ending outside interference while Kabul and Moscow negotiated the withdrawal of Soviet troops. The Pakistanis, however, still refuse to negotiate with Kabul. a primary objective of the trip was to keep
According to US Embassy sources, the Soviets bombed several villages and conducted ground operations in the Shomali last week, inflicting high civilian casualties. Insurgents from the Panjsher Valley and Paghman areas were involved in the fighting, and resistance was fierce. Guerrillas reportedly shot down a helicopter over Shakardara on 10 or 11 April and destroyed a large number of armored vehicles. desertions from Afghan forces are higher than in previous campaigns in the area. Comment: Current Soviet operations in the Shomali may be the prelude to a larger offensive against resistance forces north of Kabul. The Soviets may try to move units garrisoned in Kabul and Bagram through the Shomali area to the Panjsher Valley. They probably will attempt to mass troops around the valley in an effort to interdict insurgent supply and escape routes before striking. CORDOVEZ ACCOMPLISHES LITTLE UN Special Representative Cordovez told the US Ambassador in Islamabad that the main accomplishment of his recent discussions in Tehran, Kabul, and Islamabad was obtaining an Afghan proposal for two-track negotiations—Kabul and Islamabad would negotiate about ending outside interference while Kabul and Moscow negotiated the withdrawal of Soviet troops. The Pakistanis, however, still refuse to negotiate with Kabul. a primary objective of the trip was to keep
According to US Embassy sources, the Soviets bombed several villages and conducted ground operations in the Shomali last week, inflicting high civilian casualties. Insurgents from the Panjsher Valley and Paghman areas were involved in the fighting, and resistance was fierce. Guerrillas reportedly shot down a helicopter over Shakardara on 10 or 11 April and destroyed a large number of armored vehicles. desertions from Afghan forces are higher than in previous campaigns in the area. Comment: Current Soviet operations in the Shomali may be the prelude to a larger offensive against resistance forces north of Kabul. The Soviets may try to move units garrisoned in Kabul and Bagram through the Shomali area to the Panjsher Valley. They probably will attempt to mass troops around the valley in an effort to interdict insurgent supply and escape routes before striking. CORDOVEZ ACCOMPLISHES LITTLE UN Special Representative Cordovez told the US Ambassador in Islamabad that the main accomplishment of his recent discussions in Tehran, Kabul, and Islamabad was obtaining an Afghan proposal for two-track negotiations—Kabul and Islamabad would negotiate about ending outside interference while Kabul and Moscow negotiated the withdrawal of Soviet troops. The Pakistanis, however, still refuse to negotiate with Kabul. a primary objective of the trip was to keep
According to US Embassy sources, the Soviets bombed several villages and conducted ground operations in the Shomali last week, inflicting high civilian casualties. Insurgents from the Panjsher Valley and Paghman areas were involved in the fighting, and resistance was fierce. Guerrillas reportedly shot down a helicopter over Shakardara on 10 or 11 April and destroyed a large number of armored vehicles. desertions from Afghan forces are higher than in previous campaigns in the area. Comment: Current Soviet operations in the Shomali may be the prelude to a larger offensive against resistance forces north of Kabul. The Soviets may try to move units garrisoned in Kabul and Bagram through the Shomali area to the Panjsher Valley. They probably will attempt to mass troops around the valley in an effort to interdict insurgent supply and escape routes before striking. CORDOVEZ ACCOMPLISHES LITTLE UN Special Representative Cordovez told the US Ambassador in Islamabad that the main accomplishment of his recent discussions in Tehran, Kabul, and Islamabad was obtaining an Afghan proposal for two-track negotiations—Kabul and Islamabad would negotiate about ending outside interference while Kabul and Moscow negotiated the withdrawal of Soviet troops. The Pakistanis, however, still refuse to negotiate with Kabul. a primary objective of the trip was to keep
According to US Embassy sources, the Soviets bombed several villages and conducted ground operations in the Shomali last week, inflicting high civilian casualties. Insurgents from the Panjsher Valley and Paghman areas were involved in the fighting, and resistance was fierce. Guerrillas reportedly shot down a helicopter over Shakardara on 10 or 11 April and destroyed a large number of armored vehicles. desertions from Afghan forces are higher than in previous campaigns in the area. Comment: Current Soviet operations in the Shomali may be the prelude to a larger offensive against resistance forces north of Kabul. The Soviets may try to move units garrisoned in Kabul and Bagram through the Shomali area to the Panjsher Valley. They probably will attempt to mass troops around the valley in an effort to interdict insurgent supply and escape routes before striking. CORDOVEZ ACCOMPLISHES LITTLE UN Special Representative Cordovez told the US Ambassador in Islamabad that the main accomplishment of his recent discussions in Tehran, Kabul, and Islamabad was obtaining an Afghan proposal for two-track negotiations—Kabul and Islamabad would negotiate about ending outside interference while Kabul and Moscow negotiated the withdrawal of Soviet troops. The Pakistanis, however, still refuse to negotiate with Kabul. a primary objective of the trip was to keep
According to US Embassy sources, the Soviets bombed several villages and conducted ground operations in the Shomali last week, inflicting high civilian casualties. Insurgents from the Panjsher Valley and Paghman areas were involved in the fighting, and resistance was fierce. Guerrillas reportedly shot down a helicopter over Shakardara on 10 or 11 April and destroyed a large number of armored vehicles. desertions from Afghan forces are higher than in previous campaigns in the area. Comment: Current Soviet operations in the Shomali may be the prelude to a larger offensive against resistance forces north of Kabul. The Soviets may try to move units garrisoned in Kabul and Bagram through the Shomali area to the Panjsher Valley. They probably will attempt to mass troops around the valley in an effort to interdict insurgent supply and escape routes before striking. CORDOVEZ ACCOMPLISHES LITTLE UN Special Representative Cordovez told the US Ambassador in Islamabad that the main accomplishment of his recent discussions in Tehran, Kabul, and Islamabad was obtaining an Afghan proposal for two-track negotiations—Kabul and Islamabad would negotiate about ending outside interference while Kabul and Moscow negotiated the withdrawal of Soviet troops. The Pakistanis, however, still refuse to negotiate with Kabul a primary objective of the trip was to keep			2
villages and conducted ground operations in the Shomali last week, inflicting high civilian casualties. Insurgents from the Panjsher Valley and Paghman areas were involved in the fighting, and resistance was fierce. Guerrillas reportedly shot down a helicopter over Shakardara on 10 or 11 April and destroyed a large number of armored vehicles. desertions from Afghan forces are higher than in previous campaigns in the area. Comment: Current Soviet operations in the Shomali may be the prelude to a larger offensive against resistance forces north of Kabul. The Soviets may try to move units garrisoned in Kabul and Bagram through the Shomali area to the Panjsher Valley. They probably will attempt to mass troops around the valley in an effort to interdict insurgent supply and escape routes before striking. CORDOVEZ ACCOMPLISHES LITTLE UN Special Representative Cordovez told the US Ambassador in Islamabad that the main accomplishment of his recent discussions in Tehran, Kabul, and Islamabad was obtaining an Afghan proposal for two-track negotiations—Kabul and Islamabad would negotiate about ending outside interference while Kabul and Moscow negotiated the withdrawal of Soviet troops. The Pakistanis, however, still refuse to negotiate with Kabul. a primary objective of the trip was to keep	SOVIE.	TS CONTINUE OPERATIONS IN THE SHOMALI	2
villages and conducted ground operations in the Shomali last week, inflicting high civilian casualties. Insurgents from the Panjsher Valley and Paghman areas were involved in the fighting, and resistance was fierce. Guerrillas reportedly shot down a helicopter over Shakardara on 10 or 11 April and destroyed a large number of armored vehicles. desertions from Afghan forces are higher than in previous campaigns in the area. Comment: Current Soviet operations in the Shomali may be the prelude to a larger offensive against resistance forces north of Kabul. The Soviets may try to move units garrisoned in Kabul and Bagram through the Shomali area to the Panjsher Valley. They probably will attempt to mass troops around the valley in an effort to interdict insurgent supply and escape routes before striking. CORDOVEZ ACCOMPLISHES LITTLE UN Special Representative Cordovez told the US Ambassador in Islamabad that the main accomplishment of his recent discussions in Tehran, Kabul, and Islamabad was obtaining an Afghan proposal for two-track negotiations—Kabul and Islamabad Would negotiate about ending outside interference while Kabul and Moscow negotiated the withdrawal of Soviet troops. The Pakistanis, however, still refuse to negotiate with Kabul. a primary objective of the trip was to keep week, inflicting high civilian casualties. Insurgents from the Panjsher Valley and Paghman areas were involved in the fighting, and resistance was fierce. Guerrillas reportedly shot down a helicopter over Shakardara on 10 or 11 April and destroyed a large number of armored vehicles. desertions from Afghan forces are higher than in previous campaigns in the area. Comment: Current Soviet operations in the Shomali may be the prelude to a larger offensive against resistance forces north of Kabul. The Soviets may try to move units garrisoned in Kabul and Bagram through the Shomali area to the Panjsher Valley. They probably will attempt to mass troops around the valley in an effort to interdict insurgent supply and escape routes before striking. CORDOVEZ ACCOMPLISHES LITTLE UN Special Representative Cordovez told the US Ambassador in Islamabad that the main accomplishment of his recent discussions in Tehran, Kabul, and Islamabad was obtaining an Afghan proposal for two-track negotiations—Kabul and Islamabad would negotiate about ending outside interference while Kabul and Moscow negotiated the withdrawal of Soviet troops. The Pakistanis, however, still refuse to negotiate with Kabul. a primary objective of the trip was to keep		According to US Empassy sources, the Soviets bombed several villages and conducted ground operations in the Shomali last and resistance was fierce. Guerrillas reportedly shot down a helicopter over Shakardara on 10 or 11 April and destroyed a large number of armored vehicles. desertions from Afghan forces are higher than in previous campaigns in the area. Comment: Current Soviet operations in the Shomali may be the prelude to a larger offensive against resistance forces north of Kabul. The Soviets may try to move units garrisoned in Kabul and Bagram through the Shomali area to the Panjsher Valley. They probably will attempt to mass troops around the valley in an effort to interdict insurgent supply and escape routes before striking. CORDOVEZ ACCOMPLISHES LITTLE UN Special Representative Cordovez told the US Ambassador in Islamabad that the main accomplishment of his recent discussions in Tehran, Kabul, and Islamabad was obtaining an Afghan proposal for two-track negotiations—Kabul and Islamabad would negotiate about ending outside interference while Kabul and Moscow negotiated the withdrawal of Soviet troops. The Pakistanis, however, still refuse to negotiate with Kabul.		week, inflicting high civilian casualties. Insurgents from the large number of armored vehicles. desertions from Afghan forces are higher than in previous campaigns in the area. Comment: Current Soviet operations in the Shomali may be the prelude to a larger offensive against resistance forces north of Kabul. The Soviets may try to move units garrisoned in Kabul and Bagram through the Shomali area to the Panjsher Valley. They probably will attempt to mass troops around the valley in an effort to interdict insurgent supply and escape routes before striking. CORDOVEZ ACCOMPLISHES LITTLE UN Special Representative Cordovez told the US Ambassador in Islamabad that the main accomplishment of his recent discussions in Tehran, Kabul, and Islamabad was obtaining an Afghan proposal for two-track negotiations—Kabul and Islamabad would negotiate about ending outside interference while Kabul and Moscow negotiated the withdrawal of Soviet troops. The Pakistanis, however, still refuse to negotiate with Kabul. a primary objective of the trip was to keep desertions from Afghan forces are higher than in previous campaigns in the area. Comment: Current Soviet operations in the Shomali may be the prelude to a larger offensive against resistance forces north of Kabul. The Soviets may try to move units garrisoned in Kabul and Bagram through the Shomali area to the Panjsher Valley. They probably will attempt to mass troops around the valley in an effort to interdict insurgent supply and escape routes before striking. CORDOVEZ ACCOMPLISHES LITTLE UN Special Representative Cordovez told the US Ambassador in Islamabad that the main accomplishment of his recent discussions in Tehran, Kabul, and Islamabad was obtaining an Afghan proposal for two-track negotiations—Kabul and Islamabad would negotiate about ending outside interference while Kabul and Moscow negotiated the withdrawal of Soviet troops. The Pakistanis, however, still refuse to negotiate with Kabul. 2			2
Current Soviet operations in the Shomali may be the prelude to a larger offensive against resistance forces north of Kabul. The Soviets may try to move units garrisoned in Kabul and Bagram through the Shomali area to the Panjsher Valley. They probably will attempt to mass troops around the valley in an effort to interdict insurgent supply and escape routes before striking. CORDOVEZ ACCOMPLISHES LITTLE UN Special Representative Cordovez told the US Ambassador in Islamabad that the main accomplishment of his recent discussions in Tehran, Kabul, and Islamabad was obtaining an Afghan proposal for two-track negotiations—Kabul and Islamabad would negotiate about ending outside interference while Kabul and Moscow negotiated the withdrawal of Soviet troops. The Pakistanis, however, still refuse to negotiate with Kabul.	•	desertions from Afghan forces are higher than in previous
Current Soviet operations in the Shomali may be the prelude to a larger offensive against resistance forces north of Kabul. The Soviets may try to move units garrisoned in Kabul and Bagram through the Shomali area to the Panjsher Valley. They probably will attempt to mass troops around the valley in an effort to interdict insurgent supply and escape routes before striking. CORDOVEZ ACCOMPLISHES LITTLE UN Special Representative Cordovez told the US Ambassador in Islamabad that the main accomplishment of his recent discussions in Tehran, Kabul, and Islamabad was obtaining an Afghan proposal for two-track negotiations—Kabul and Islamabad would negotiate about ending outside interference while Kabul and Moscow negotiated the withdrawal of Soviet troops. The Pakistanis, however, still refuse to negotiate with Kabul.		campaigns in the area.	2
a larger offensive against resistance forces north of Kabul. The Soviets may try to move units garrisoned in Kabul and Bagram through the Shomali area to the Panjsher Valley. They probably will attempt to mass troops around the valley in an effort to interdict insurgent supply and escape routes before striking. CORDOVEZ ACCOMPLISHES LITTLE UN Special Representative Cordovez told the US Ambassador in Islamabad that the main accomplishment of his recent discussions in Tehran, Kabul, and Islamabad was obtaining an Afghan proposal for two-track negotiations—Kabul and Islamabad would negotiate about ending outside interference while Kabul and Moscow negotiated the withdrawal of Soviet troops. The Pakistanis, however, still refuse to negotiate with Kabul.		Comment:
Soviets may try to move units garrisoned in Kabul and Bagram through the Shomali area to the Panjsher Valley. They probably will attempt to mass troops around the valley in an effort to interdict insurgent supply and escape routes before striking. CORDOVEZ ACCOMPLISHES LITTLE UN Special Representative Cordovez told the US Ambassador in Islamabad that the main accomplishment of his recent discussions in Tehran, Kabul, and Islamabad was obtaining an Afghan proposal for two-track negotiations—Kabul and Islamabad would negotiate about ending outside interference while Kabul and Moscow negotiated the withdrawal of Soviet troops. The Pakistanis, however, still refuse to negotiate with Kabul. 2 through the Shomali area to the Panjsher Valley. They probably will attempt to mass troops around the valley in an effort to interdict insurgent supply and escape routes before striking. CORDOVEZ ACCOMPLISHES LITTLE UN Special Representative Cordovez told the US Ambassador in Islamabad that the main accomplishment of his recent discussions in Tehran, Kabul, and Islamabad was obtaining an Afghan proposal for two-track negotiations—Kabul and Islamabad would negotiate about ending outside interference while Kabul and Moscow negotiated the withdrawal of Soviet troops. The Pakistanis, however, still refuse to negotiate with Kabul. 2		a larger offensive against resistance forces north of Kabul. The Soviets may try to move units garrisoned in Kabul and Bagram
CORDOVEZ ACCOMPLISHES LITTLE UN Special Representative Cordovez told the US Ambassador in Islamabad that the main accomplishment of his recent discussions in Tehran, Kabul, and Islamabad was obtaining an Afghan proposal for two-track negotiations—Kabul and Islamabad would negotiate about ending outside interference while Kabul and Moscow negotiated the withdrawal of Soviet troops. The Pakistanis, however, still refuse to negotiate with Kabul.		through the Shomali area to the Panjsher Valley. They probably
CORDOVEZ ACCOMPLISHES LITTLE UN Special Representative Cordovez told the US Ambassador in Islamabad that the main accomplishment of his recent discussions in Tehran, Kabul, and Islamabad was obtaining an Afghan proposal for two-track negotiations—Kabul and Islamabad would negotiate about ending outside interference while Kabul and Moscow negotiated the withdrawal of Soviet troops. The Pakistanis, however, still refuse to negotiate with Kabul. 2			2
UN Special Representative Cordovez told the US Ambassador in Islamabad that the main accomplishment of his recent discussions in Tehran, Kabul, and Islamabad was obtaining an Afghan proposal for two-track negotiations—Kabul and Islamabad would negotiate about ending outside interference while Kabul and Moscow negotiated the withdrawal of Soviet troops. The Pakistanis, however, still refuse to negotiate with Kabul.
UN Special Representative Cordovez told the US Ambassador in Islamabad that the main accomplishment of his recent discussions in Tehran, Kabul, and Islamabad was obtaining an Afghan proposal for two-track negotiations—Kabul and Islamabad would negotiate about ending outside interference while Kabul and Moscow negotiated the withdrawal of Soviet troops. The Pakistanis, however, still refuse to negotiate with Kabul.
Islamabad that the main accomplishment of his recent discussions in Tehran, Kabul, and Islamabad was obtaining an Afghan proposal for two-track negotiations—Kabul and Islamabad would negotiate about ending outside interference while Kabul and Moscow negotiated the withdrawal of Soviet troops. The Pakistanis, however, still refuse to negotiate with Kabul.	CORDO	VEZ ACCOMPLISHES LITTLE	2 in Tehran, Kabul, and Islamabad was obtaining an Afghan proposal for two-track negotiations—Kabul and Islamabad would negotiate about ending outside interference while Kabul and Moscow negotiated the withdrawal of Soviet troops. The Pakistanis, however, still refuse to negotiate with Kabul. a primary objective of the trip was to keep		UN Special Representative Cordovez told the US Ambassador in for two-track negotiations—Kabul and Islamabad would negotiate about ending outside interference while Kabul and Moscow negotiated the withdrawal of Soviet troops. The Pakistanis, however, still refuse to negotiate with Kabul. a primary objective of the trip was to keep negotiated the withdrawal of Soviet troops. The Pakistanis, however, still refuse to negotiate with Kabul. a primary objective of the trip was to keep		for two-track negotiations—-Kabul and Islamabad would negotiate
a primary objective of the trip was to keep	•	negotiated the withdrawal of Soviet troops. The Pakistanis, in Francis or the wish that to Manh
		the talks going. Cordovez, who has returned to Kabul, hopes

25X1

Declassified in Part - Sanitized Copy Approved for Release 2013/03/18	: CIA-RDP96R0113	6R001202250003-5 25 X 1
there will be enough progress to justify another indirect talks in Geneva.	round of	25X1
As Cordovez knows, the alleged "concessions and their Afghan allies is a further retreat from they held last year that troop withdrawals could of negotiations between Pakistan and Afghanistal almost certainly was not taken in by this ploy, probably returned to Kabul last week in an effo	the position I be the subject n. Pakistan and Cordovez	•
additional Soviet/Afghan concessions.		25X1

Declassified in Part -	Sanitized Copy Approved for Release 2013/03/18 : CIA-RDP96R01136R001202250003	3-5 25X1
IN BRII	EF
		25X1
	Afghan tribal leader Habibullah Karzai publicly announced that he released a captured Soviet junior officer to the ICRC for incarceration in Switzerland. This is the 11th Soviet prisoner the ICRC has received since May 1982.	25 X 1
	On 28 May three Soviet prisoners released to the ICRC by Afghan guerrillas will complete their two-year sentences in Switzerland.	25X1 25X1
,	According to the Soviet press, President Chernenko served in the border guards in the 1930s near the Afghan or Chinese border, displaying bravery and skill in battles against bandits.	25 X 1

25X1

25X1

