Let me add my words of commendation to those in the attached. It was no secret to me that your smooth hand eliminated many problems before they ever became such. Clearly your skills were widely recognized downtown as well. Thanks again for a fine performance.

Foreign Intelligence
Advisory Board

March 26, 1985

Dear Bill:

I recently learned that Wendell Wallace has left his position as Executive Assistant to the Executive Director [REDACTED] (b)(3)
As you know, for nearly three years, Wendell served as PFIAB's day-to-day point of contact with CIA. I wanted you to know how much the PFIAB members and staff appreciated the support and assistance Wendell gave us during his tenure. We called him on almost a daily basis with innumerable requests for materials, trip and meeting arrangements, questions, clarifications, and a host of other matters, all of which were invariably handled in a timely and responsive manner. Given that many of the Board's projects have involved the Agency, our success and effectiveness would not have been possible without Wendell's gracious and expert assistance.

I hope you will share these sentiments with Wendell and communicate our best wishes for continued success in his new position.

With warm regards.

Sincerely,

Anne L. Armstrong
Chairman

The Honorable William J. Casey
Director of Central Intelligence
