ORGANIZATION

Sec. 2. (a) National Intelligence Authority.-----

(1) There is hereby established a National Intelligence Authority (herein called the Authority), which shall be composed of five members. The Secretary of State, the Secretary of War and the Secretary of the Navy shall be members of the Authority. The President shall designate a fourth member of the Authority to serve as his personal representative thereon. The Secretary of State, the Secretary of War, the Secretary of the Navy, and the personal representative of the President shall constitute the sole voting members of the Authority. The Director of the Central Intelligence Agency, hereinafter provided for, shall sit as the fifth member of the Authority, as a non-voting member thereof. The Secretary of State shall serve as Chairman of the Authority.

(2) The members of the Authority shall hold their positions thereon by virtue of their respective offices, and their membership on the Authority shall be co-extensive with their tenure of such offices. The members of the Authority ^{shall} ~~will~~ serve without compensation for this service and shall perform this service in addition to such other activities, public or private, as they may engage in.

(3) In the absence of the Secretaries of State, War, and the Navy, or any one of them, the appropriate Acting Secretary shall sit as a member of the Authority. If the personal representative of the President is absent the Secretaries or Acting Secretaries of State, War, and the Navy shall constitute a quorum of the Authority.

(4) The Authority shall hold such meetings, conduct such hearings, and receive such reports as may be necessary to enable it to carry out the provisions of this Act. The Authority shall meet at least once each month.

(5) The Authority shall be served by a Secretariat, consisting of a Secretary and such other technical, administrative, and clerical assistance as ^{the CIA} shall ~~be~~ deemed necessary. The Central Intelligence Agency, hereinafter provided for, will be responsible for furnishing the Secretariat with personnel. [The Secretary shall be charged with preparing the agenda for meetings of the Authority, attending such meetings, keeping and publishing the minutes thereof, preparing the directives and other papers of the Authority, reviewing and circulating papers for consideration, ~~(initiating and reviewing the implementation of decisions)~~ maintaining the necessary offices and records of the Authority, providing secretarial and clerical assistance, such other duties for the Authority as the Authority shall direct.] }

Secretariat of the Authority shall also serve as the Secretariat of the Intelligence Advisory Board, and the Central Intelligence Agency, both hereinafter provided for, ^{this} performing the same duties for the Intelligence Advisory Board and Central Intelligence Agency as for the Authority]

(6) The National Intelligence Authority ^{shall} will determine policies, ^{departments} and supervise and direct, the Central Intelligence Agency in the planning, development, and coordination of the foreign intelligence activities of the Government, ^{departments and} agencies of the United States, as well as in the conduct of those foreign intelligence operations which can best be performed centrally, in such [a] manner as to assure the most effective accomplishment of the intelligence mission relating to the national [defense and] security.

(7) Policies approved by the Authority in relation to the foreign intelligence activities of the United States, insofar as they affect the national [defense and] security, ^{shall} will govern the foreign intelligence activities of the various departments and agencies of the Government.

(8) The Authority shall have the right to transfer responsibilities and authorities in the field of foreign intelligence between departments and agencies of the Government.

(9) If the decisions of the Authority on matters set forth in Sec. 2 (a) (6) + 2(7) (9) of this Act are not unanimous, the Authority shall refer the matter to the President, whose decision shall be final.

provisions of Title 10 U.S. Code, Sec. 576 and Public Law 724, 79th Congress, approved August 13, 1946, and entitled "An Act to improve, strengthen, and expand the Foreign Service of the United States and to consolidate and revise the laws relating to its administration," or any other law pertaining to such pay and allowances. Any such Foreign Service officer or commissioned officer on the active list shall receive, while serving in the positions established in Sec. 2 (b) of this Act, the Foreign Service or the military pay and allowances payable to an officer of his grade and length of service, and shall be paid, from any funds available to defray the expenses of the agency, annual compensation at a rate equal to the difference between the salary set forth in Sec. 2 (b) of this Act and the amount of his annual Foreign Service or Military pay and allowances.

(6) Notwithstanding, section 2 of the Act of July 31, 1894 (28 Stat. 205), as amended (5 U.S.C. 62), or section 6 of the Act of May 10, 1916 (39 Stat. 120), as amended (5 U.S.C. 58, 59), Director of Central Intelligence may appoint to, and employ in, any civilian office or position in the Agency, and pay, any retired commissioned officer, or retired warrant officer, of the Army, Navy, Marine Corps, Coast Guard, Coast and Geodetic Survey, and Public Health Service. The retired status, office, rank, and grade of retired commissioned officers, or retired warrant officers, so appointed or employed and, except as provided in section 212 of the Act of June 30, 1932 (47 Stat. 406), as amended (5 U.S.C. 59a) any emolument, perquisite, right, privilege, or benefit incident to or arising out of any such status, office, rank, or grade, shall be in no way affected by reason of such appointment to or employment in, or by reason of service in, or acceptance or holding of, any civilian office or position in the agency or the receipt of the pay thereof.

Sec. 2. (c) Intelligence Advisory Board—

(1) The Director of Central Intelligence shall be advised by an Intelligence Advisory Board, consisting of the heads (or their representatives) of the [principal] civilian and military intelligence agencies of the Government, and functions related to the national defense and security, as determined by the National Intelligence Authority.

(2) Members of the Board shall serve without compensation for this service and shall perform this service in addition to such other activities as they may engage in on private, as they may engage in.

(3) The Intelligence Advisory Board shall be served by a Secretariat as provided for in Section 2 (a) (5) of this Act.
