MEMORANDUM FOR THE CHIEF OF STAFF

44th RCT: Interrogation of Paul DICKOFF alias GROUD

name: Francois GROUD

1. Interrogation of subject was conducted in accordance with T-2
Form 2000, ref. No. E-5903, received 27 April 1947.

2. Paul DICKOFF, Adelgasse 8, Konstanz-BLEIBACH (411/24), was interrogated 27 June 1947. Subject is former chief of the Kriminal Polizei in KA LUCERN (140/344). He was drafted into the Abwehr in October 1939 and served in the STUTTGART (149/302) Abwehr Office until 1943 when the office was taken over by the SD. Subject then fled to France, Belgium, and Switzerland. He later worked with the OSS and took part in behind-the-line penetration for that organization in 1944. In response to questioning Subject stated as follows:

a. Francois GROUD, Swiss national, was a member of the Swiss Army intelligence service. Paul DICKOFF worked with GROUD from 1941 to 1943. Present addresses of GROUD are:

(1) Kunstlaan 12, BRUSSELS, Belgium.

(2) 2bis Avenue des Alpes, LUCERNE, Switzerland,
#1315 Case Postale, where he is known to have been on 15
June 1947.

b. DICKOFF states, contrary to the above referenced T-2, that in 1941 and 1942 he furnished GROUD with residence permits for MAINZ (K51/B33); and HEILBRONN, cover stories for Germany, and visas on his Swiss passport for France, Germany, and Belgium. Subject claims to also have arranged for entrance and exit permits to and from Switzerland for GROUD.

c. In 1941, Subject started to work for Swiss intelligence. He was employed by the SD and investigations were begun. During this time Subject's activities were being covered by two Abwehr men, MAGNER and BAPTISTE. These two names were cover names for Max WAASER, Rockenhausen Reg STUTTGART and Prof. Walter ANTONIOLI, BILLIGEN (149 S 11), respectively. When the SD took over, Subject was forced to flee to Switzerland, where he was given refuge through the help of MAGNER and BAPTISTE, who succeeded in keeping his activities from the SD until long after Subject had reached Switzerland.

d. Subject was captured by French forces in 1944 and was held in prison at SAINT ETIENNE. He was released in 1945 and returned to Switzerland.

e. Subject is now a member of the OSS.

f. Subject is returning to Switzerland.

g. Evaluation: F - 2.

In reply to my message:

Mr. Paul Dickopf, a German National, has been a participant in our operations. He fled to Switzerland in July, 1941, and was released and has since been free to give us his unhampered cooperation.

Since that time Mr. Dickopf has been of very great service to me. His wide knowledge of German organization and personalities has been invaluable; he is a trained member of the Kriminalpolizei and I have drawn extensively upon his experience for information on the German and Criminals.

Mr. Dickopf has made many friends among Swiss Police officials and these contacts also have been most useful. In the immediate period that followed the German capitulation, when Switzerland was deciding what was to be done with the German national within her borders, Mr. Dickopf was my intermediary with the authorities on numerous occasions and gave me repeated proof of tact and discretion.

He is a man of intelligence, of superior education and, above all, of exceptional personal integrity. I regret ~~him~~ to see him leave Switzerland and I warmly recommend him to the Allied authorities in his homeland,

SUBJECT: Interrogation of Paul DICDOPF alias DICKMAN

To: Francois GENOUD

1. Interrogation of Subject was conducted in accordance with T.I. from Legion III, ref. No. L-5993, received 29 April 1948.

2. Paul DICDOPF, Adolfsallee 8, Wiesbaden-BIEBERICH (K51/R55), was interrogated 25 June 1948. Subject is former Chief of the Kriminal Polizei in KARLSRUHE (L50/R44). He was drafted into the Abwehr in October 1939 and served in the STUTTGART (L49/S02) Abwehr Office until 1943 when the office was taken over by the SD. Subject then fled to France, Belgium, and Switzerland. He later worked with the OSS and took part in behind-the-line penetration for that organization in 1944. In response to questioning Subject stated as follows:

a. Francois GENOUD, Swiss national, was a member of the Swiss Army Intelligence Service. Paul DICDOPF worked with GENOUD from 1941 to 1943. Present addresses of GENOUD are:

(1) Kunstlaan 12, BRUSSELS, Belgium.

(2) 2bis Avenue des Alpes, LUCERNE, Switzerland,
#1315 Case Postale, where he is known to have been on 15

b. DICDOPF states, contrary to the above referenced T.I., that in 1941 and 1942 he furnished GENOUD with residence permits for MAINZ (K51/R35), and KARLSRUHE, cover stories for Germany, and visas on his Swiss passport for France, Germany, and Belgium. Subject claims to also have arranged for entrance and exit permit to and from Switzerland for GENOUD.

c. In 1941, Subject started to work for Swiss intelligence. He was suspected by the SD and investigations were begun. During this time Subject's activities were being covered by two Abwehr men, WAGNER and BAUMEISTER. These names were cover names for Max MAASSER, Rockenwiesen Weg STUTTGART and Prof. Walter BRITZINGER, KELLINGEN (L49 S 11), respectively. When the SD took over, Subject was forced to flee to Switzerland, where he was given refuge through the help of WAGNER and BAUMEISTER, who succeeded in keeping his activities from the SD until long after Subject had reached Switzerland.

1. Classification—The following classification of the Micrococcaceae is based upon the results of the present study.

Books—Anglo-Saxons.

127. Diese Formen sind nicht so sehr von politischer Bedeutung, als vielmehr von sozialer Bedeutung, da sie eine gewisse soziale Sicherung und Unterstützung der armen Bevölkerung darstellen.

128. Diese Formen sind nicht so sehr von politischer Bedeutung, als vielmehr von sozialer Bedeutung, da sie eine gewisse soziale Sicherung und Unterstützung der armen Bevölkerung darstellen.

129. Falls diese beiden Formen nicht ausreichen, um die sozialen Probleme zu lösen, kann man auf andere Weise vorgehen, z.B. durch die Errichtung von sozialen Dienststellen, wie z.B. Sozialstationen, Heim- und Pflegeanstalten usw.
