1. As a result of the clash between about 200 Communist workers and pro-Communist students and about 1,000 Chinese refugees at Mount Davis refugee camp, Hong Kong, it was revealed that one FU Ch'uan (符泉), posing as a refugee, was really a Communist sympathizer. The camp authorities have been asked to cancel his privilege of using the camp. Although FU's family was beaten, FU apparently escaped.
2. FU gave a statement to the press that the refugees would prefer staying in Hong Kong or going to the mainland to going to Taiwan. This apparently angered the inmates.

[ ] Comment. The Hong Kong vernacular press recently reported that Communist agents are posing as members of a third force group among inmates in refugee camps. Biographical data and photographs obtained from many of the refugees, under the pretense of recruiting them as guerrillas, have been used to apprehend them in Canton.
