Dear Mr. Gibney:

I appreciate the courtesy that you and Doubleday have extended to me in sending me a copy of the Penkovskiy book. As you can well imagine, I have been reading this book with the greatest interest. It is a major contribution to our knowledge of how the secret apparatus of the Kremlin is operating in the world.

I hope that you will give me a call when you are next in Washington, and please extend my kindest regards to Peter Deriabin and, also, my congratulations to him for the splendid contribution he has made to this important publication.

Sincerely yours,

Allen W. Dulles
