Chicago, Illinois, for violation of the anti-riot law, plans to demonstrate at the Federal Building, San Francisco, California, on December 6. Speakers will include some of the defendants in the Chicago trial and a member of the Black Panther Party.

*December 6, Fayetteville, Arkansas

The Black & White Group, a recently formed group at the University of Arkansas, Fayetteville, Arkansas, is planning demonstrations during the University of Texas and University of Arkansas football game at Fayetteville on 6 December which will be attended by President Nixon. Activities will have a joint theme of racial equality and peace in Vietnam. The group is considering handing out peace leaflets and blockading roads to prevent members of the Arkansas Legislature from attending the game and to cause a major traffic jam. It is also considering demonstrating on the field during the half time. The purposes of the demonstrations are also to demand free dormitories, free scholarships, an end to poverty by next Thanksgiving, and an end to the playing of "Dixie" at football games. The NMC stated it would send people from across the U. S. to participate in the demonstrations. Reportedly, black students will take over the stadium during halftime. Obviously halftime activities are planned by school authorities and any interference will be seriously disruptive.

*December 13-14, Cleveland, Ohio

While the New Mobilization Committee to End the War in Vietnam has not yet officially announced its plans for the future, its Executive Committee has indicated that contrary to original "stated" intention to be just an Ad Hoc Coalition for purposes of organizing the Fall Offensive on a United Front basis, it feels it "has a future" and will consider detailed plans for new anti-war demonstrations. A Cleveland meeting on December 13-14 will include the 100 odd-members of the steering committee and will probably ratify the Executive Committee opinion.

*December 13 and 24, Nationally

After the mass demonstration approach of the November 13-15 actions in Washington, D. C., San Francisco, and other major cities the Vietnam Moratorium Committee plans for December call for three days of action split between the 12 and 13th of December and the 24th but on a peaceful, small-sized, low-key, decentralized, individual community level. Reputedly, VMC thinking now is that future VMC-sponsored activities will not be scheduled to escalate a day a month as previously planned nor are they to include mass demonstrations. Plans are to work peacefully through the electoral system and to create dialogue on the Vietnam war. As noted earlier, the plans of the New Move have not been firmed up yet, but it is anticipated that they will entail much more aggressive actions.

VMC activities planned and suggested to local anti-war groups include:

Peaceful "town meetings" in 25 major American cities to discuss the war, to remind local 1970 political candidates that Vietnam will be a major issue, and to encourage adults to take a more active anti-war role;

A deluge of postcards and telegrams to President Nixon urging a faster withdrawal of all American forces;

Peaceful anti-war "USO-type" concerts by anti-war entertainers;

Peaceful silent vigils at shopping centers;

Interdenominational "services for peace" Christmas Eve;

Public "silent night" vigils and Christmas carolling with theme of "Peace on Earth" on Christmas Eve;

Peaceful goodwill visits to Vets Hospitals and military bases;

Visits to home offices of Congressmen pledging support only if they are anti-war; and, broadened contact with the GI anti-war movement.

*December 14, Oceanside, California

Anti-war demonstration to be sponsored by Green Machine Coffee House, Oceanside, and First Unitarian Church and New Mobilization Committee, Los Angeles. Speakers to include former servicemen, one priest, and David Hilliard, Chief of Staff, BPP. Hilliard was arrested on 5 December for making threats against the President of the U.
