

11 July 1954

Dear Dr. Dochev:

Thank you for your letter of July 31. I am glad the visa question will not be a hindrance to our meeting again. If I cannot come, a friend of mine will replace me. It is best to wait until the meeting in September is over. I will write you a date.

I have learned through friends that Kalin and Georgi have found and will send you the necessary help which you mentioned in your letter. I beg you to tell me when you hear from them.

Sincerely
