1. On 2 September 1964, Source saw two captured US pilots at an exhibition in HANOI, NVN. The exhibition was called "The 5 August Exhibition", because the pilots had been shot down on that day.
2. The exhibition was held in a building in UNIFICATION Park, VAN HO Area (near BAY MAU Lake), HANOI. The pilots, dressed in white, were seated in one room; their uniforms, head gear, identification cards, and fragments of their aircraft were displayed in another room. They both appeared to be young, strong, and fat. Their hair was brown. Source could not remember their names.
