

22 August 1945

SUBJECT: Lt. William Visser

TO : Commanding Officer, C.I.C., Maastricht, Holland

1. This is to introduce Lt. William Visser of the Netherlands Army who was employed by this organisation from September 1944 to May 1945 as an observer. During this period Lt. Visser (then Sergeant) demonstrated unusual aptitude for this type of work. He performed every assignment given to him, not only to our complete satisfaction, but with distinction, on the basis of which he has been recommended by us for the Distinguished Service Cross.

2. We recommend Lt. Visser to all United States Army installations with whom he may come in contact in the performance of his present duties.
