INTELLIGENCE MEMORANDUM

ADDENDUM TO MEMORANDUM OF 8 MARCH,
CHILE: JUNTA SOLIDARITY

15c

Chile might eventually alter its human rights practices, but only after enough time has passed so that it will not appear to have done so in response to outside pressure. After a "cooling off" period the US might find Santiago receptive to the idea of easing certain restrictions if assured of concrete "rewards."

Chile feels desperately in need of military equipment to counter the Peruvian buildup and might respond favorable to offers of US arms.
