

15 February 1945

OPERATION SAMSON

SAMSON with operation LAHO will pass the lines West of Haguenau 16/2/45 and proceed on foot to Karlsruhe. [REDACTED] is a Staatsangehörige from Essen. She has a Kennkarte issued 23/10/44 and a Arbeitsbuch issued 23/10/44. She was signed as a Marinehelferin at Flensburg, but her house was bombed 24/10/44. She was given a Bescheinigung to that effect 26/10/44 issued by the Polizei-Prasidium, Essen, 2. Polizei-Revier. Also a Besch.z.Ben.b.Eisenb. dated 1/11/44, expiring 10/11/44, issued by the same authority and authorizing her to visit her mother. Her mother's name is [REDACTED]. She was ill of heart disease in Zabern as witnessed by a prescription for Coramine signed by Dr. Weber at Zabern on 10/11/44.

She did not return on the date and was still in Zabern when the city was captured. She was put in the prison camp where she was befriended by LAHO. Her mother died 1/6/45. She was able to get through the lines through LAHO and is now on her way to Essen.

APPROVED FOR RELEASE

DATE: JUL 2000

W2 9873-15

15 February 1945

OPERATION SAMSON

SAMSON with operation LAHO will pass the lines West of Maguenau 16/2/45 and proceed on foot to Karlsruhe. [REDACTED] is a Staatsangehorige from Essen. She has a Kennkarte issued 23/10/44 and a Arbeitsbuch issued 23/10/44. She was signed as a Marinehelferin at Flensburg, but her house was bombed 24/10/44. She was given a Bescheinigung to that effect 26/10/44 issued by the PolizeiPrasidium, Essen, 2. Polizei-Revier. Also a Besch.z.Ben.b.Eisenb. dated 1/11/44, expiring 10/11/44, issued by the same authority and authorizing her to visit her mother. Her mother's name is [REDACTED]. She was ill of heart disease in Zabern as witnessed by a prescription for Coramine signed by Dr. Weber at Zabern on 10/11/44.

She did not return on the date and was still in Zabern when the city was captured. She was put in the prison camp where she was befriended by LAHO. Her mother died 1/6/45. She was able to get through the lines through LAHO and is now on her way to Essen.