Iraq and Kuwait To Attend Arab League
Meeting

Representatives from all 21 Arab League member countries will attend a ministerial meeting in Cairo on Saturday. The Iraqi delegation head will be the director of the Foreign Ministry's Arab section, [REDACTED]. Press reports say the Kuwaiti delegate will chair the meeting. The agenda will be limited to procedural matters and administrative issues and will include no political topics, [REDACTED].

Comment: Iraq is attempting to reduce its diplomatic isolation. The report of Kuwait chairing the meeting, if true, indicates the anti-Iraq coalition has maintained the upper hand in the League. [REDACTED]
