WASHINGTON, D. C.
OFFICE OF THE DIRECTOR

28 December 1961

The Honorable Dean Rusk
The Secretary of State
Department of State
Washington, D. C.

Dear Dean:

Some two weeks ago, arrangements were made to deliver to you a copy of the Check List prepared each day for the President. I would appreciate to know whether this Check List now being prepared is being of value and any suggestions you might have for any improvements.

Sincerely,

John A. McCone
Director

Dear John:

Your letter of December 28 gives me an opportunity to put on record my appreciation for the arrangements made to include me on the President's Check List. Its primary use to me is to signal those developments which are being brought daily to the attention of the President through this informal channel. The format and content seem ideal for this purpose, and I have no suggestions for its improvement.

With warm regards,

Sincerely,

Dean Rusk

The Honorable
John A. McCone,
Director,
Central Intelligence Agency.
