In Chile, the pro-Castro Movement of the Revolutionary Left (MIR) also plans to kidnap an official of the US Embassy, the ambassador, if possible. They plan to hold him in exchange for the MIR leader captured on 15 March. Terrorist action in Ecuador would be aimed at securing the release of a leftist extremist student leader convicted of murdering a policeman. A cabinet minister or the US consul in Quito is to be the target. In Venezuela, Communist-led students have discussed the possibility of kidnaping some high-level person.
