Do you find that Alfonso Chardy has accurately represented your views in the attached article, which is being circulated by the Knight-Ridder New Service? If Chardy has misrepresented you, I hope you will tell him so he can correct the record.

If the charges contained in Chardy's piece do accurately reflect your point of view, I will probably have to say something publicly on behalf of the Agency to correct the record from our point of view. You should know that there are some angry analysts out here, and they are not all senior officers.
