1. This memorandum is in continuing response to your requirement dated 21 January 1970 concerning the identification of installations in Southeast Asia which may contain American POW's.

2. The Probable Prison Camp at Son Tay, North Vietnam (WJ528373) is being enlarged. Photography [Redacted] reveals the construction of two new buildings in the northern portion of the compound and the movement of a guard tower from the east wall to the junction of the north and west walls. The two new buildings measure approximately 25 by 10 feet and 36 by 12 feet. An additional new building approximately 48 by 16 feet is outside the walled compound. All construction has occurred since July 1969.

3. Forwarded for your retention are two annotated photographs ~~(CIA/IAS [Redacted] 1-7195/70 thru 1-7196/70).~~
