

K120

Aloys UWIMANA
(Phonetic: OOwccMAHNah)

RWANDA

*Ambassador to the United States
(since October 1987)*

Addressed as: Mr. Ambassador

Uwimana was born on 11 December 1944. He has an M. A. degree in economics from the Catholic University of Louvain in Belgium. He joined the Foreign Ministry in 1976 and subsequently served in several West European countries, including West Germany and Belgium. During a tour as director general of economic, financial, and technical cooperation in the Ministry of Foreign Affairs (1981-84), he played an important role in administering foreign aid. He was Ambassador to Japan from 1984 until receiving his current assignment.

Uwimana visited the United States in 1982 as an International Visitor Program grantee. He speaks good English and French, in addition to his native Kinyarwanda. He is a Roman Catholic.

He and his wife, Emma, have four children.

31 July 1990

EO 12958 1.4(c)<25Yrs
EO 12958 1.4(d)<25Yrs
EO 12958 6.2(c)

APPROVED FOR RELEASE
DATE: OCT 2007

