UNCLASSIFIED//~~FOUO~~

Subject: (U/ [] Retirement of the Director of the National Clandestine Service, Jose Rodriguez

1. (U/ [] After more than three decades of distinguished service with the Central Intelligence Agency (CIA), an exceptional career that took him to the top of his profession as Director of the National Clandestine Service (D/NCS), Jose Rodriguez will retire later this year.
2. (U/ [] Mr. Rodriguez built a reputation for leadership in the field and here at headquarters, and he guided some of the Agency's greatest counter-terror victories. Beyond his operational skill, he brought to each assignment a real sense for people and a gift for developing Intelligence Officers. With the establishment of the NCS in October 2005, Mr. Rodriguez brought higher standards and greater coordination to human espionage operations across the Intelligence Community.
3. (U/ [] He has done much to protect our country by strengthening its Clandestine Service, a vital arm of our nation's defense. While the CIA will miss his talent and wisdom, Mr. Rodriguez's commitment and dedication will find lasting reflection in the men and women he led with both care and daring. They should be for him a source of enduring pride.
4. (U/ [] Mr. Rodriguez also sought and on 9 May was approved to have his operational cover lifted. That gives him the chance, as D/NCS, to speak publicly on key intelligence issues. For example, at the invitation of Congressman Silvestre Reyes, D/NCS recently attended a security conference in Texas, where he was part of a panel on diversity as an operational imperative.
