Mr. Carl E. Duckett is hereby awarded the Distinguished Intelligence Medal in recognition of his outstanding services to the Central Intelligence Agency. As Deputy Director for Science and Technology, he has become a key expert in the field of foreign scientific and technological affairs. His role in the achievement of strategic arms limitation agreements between the United States and the USSR has been highly acknowledged. In his steadfast devotion to the mission of this Agency, he has continually demonstrated his exceptional managerial talents by improving intelligence collection and production in the pursuit of national intelligence goals. During the current period of internal reappraisal and reorganization, the Central Intelligence Agency has leaned heavily on Mr. Duckett's perception, counsel and leadership. His resourcefulness has been an inspiration. Mr. Duckett's performance reflects great credit on him and the Federal service.
