

OFFICE OF STRATEGIC SERVICES

WASHINGTON, D. C.

July 16, 1942

Subject: Lt. Colonel John V. Grombach.

To: Chief, Situation and Planning Branch,
Military Intelligence Service.

1. Pursuant to verbal and written instructions, Lt. Colonel Grombach was loaned by MIS, "in addition to his other duties," to this office for a certain task.

2. I wish to commend Lt. Colonel Grombach for his time and efforts and the results attained in a very short time, working against many obstacles. His stamina for work and his ability to get things done were outstanding.

3. The O.S.S. have appointed Major L. Lowman to take charge of all radio activities and the installations and organization set up by Lt. Colonel Grombach.

* 4. We desire, however, the privilege of conference and consultations with Lt. Colonel Grombach for the next thirty days, and his availability for a few more trips to New York, and possibly one trip to Hollywood during this period. His expenses on these trips will be paid by this office.

M. P. GOODFELLOW,
Lt. Col. G.S.C.,
Executive Officer, O.S.S.

* On your request my chief here would prefer "two weeks" without the Hollywood trip.
