COURSE OBJECTIVES - CONTENT AND METHODS

The Senior Management Seminar was held 17-22 October 1965 at the Domestic Training Center. It was conducted by

The Seminar was in large part identical to the Team Development Program conducted elsewhere by this firm. Attention of the participants was directed to ways of achieving effective team action and individual leadership. The teaching technique was essentially one of assigning tasks for the participants to work out in small groups. As a conceptual base the class used as a text by
