

CONTENTS

Winter 1993

Page

INTELLIGENCE TODAY AND TOMORROW

	1
	13
Taking Care of Business David W. Overton A CIA officer-in-residence (U)	17
The Intelligence Revolution and the Future Wesley K. Wark One of time's arrows (U)	25

HISTORICAL PERSPECTIVES

Richard Helms as DCI Robert M. Hathaway Relations with the White House (S)	33
	41
Questions, Questions, Questions Arnold M. Silver Memories of Oberursel (U)	53
Research Intelligence in Early Modern England William H. Sherman Official scholars and action officers (U)	63

FROM THE ARCHIVES

Red Nautilus Under Way John A. Lundin Using scientific information (S)	75
--	----

APPROVED FOR RELEASE
DATE: 15-Apr-2011

(b)(1)
(b)(3)

INTELLIGENCE IN RECENT PUBLIC LITERATURE

79

Heisenberg's War: The Secret History of the German Bomb (U) Hayden B. Peake

Regulating Covert Action (U).....

Tragic Mountains: The Hmong, The Americans, and the Ward Warren
Secret Wars for Laos (U)
