Dear Sir:

I am writing to you in connection with a position I applied for through a [redacted]

I completed an application in November 19, 1951, at [redacted] and told [redacted] I was ready to accept the temporary indefinite appointment. I was told I should hear from you within four to six weeks, but to this date, I have heard nothing.

I thought that [redacted] might have forgotten to mention the fact that I would accept the temporary indefinite appointment.

I would appreciate it, if you could let me know how I stand.

Sincerely yours,

John F. Herlihy
