Dear Mr. Lee:

I have your letter of the 18th which I have discussed with Mr. McDonough. As our organization is at present set up, it does not look to me as though there would be an immediate opening with us. I am, however, sending your papers on to Washington to see whether there is any probability of an opening there.

I should be glad to have a further talk with you at your convenience.

Faithfully yours,

A.W.Dulles
