

THE PRESIDENT'S INTELLIGENCE CHECKLIST

ISSUED BY THE
CENTRAL INTELLIGENCE AGENCY

10 JULY 1963
~~TOP SECRET~~

1. Sino-Soviet talks

a. Talks with the Chinese resumed in Moscow this morning following yesterday's hiatus.

b. Demonstrating righteous innocence and speaking in tones more of regret than anger, Peiping issued a statement this morning which urges that all fault lies with the Soviet side.

c. This done, the Chinese returned to the conference where they are pressing hard for a conclave of world Communist party leaders, [redacted]

[redacted]
[redacted]
[redacted]
[redacted]

50X1
50X1
50X1
50X1
50X1

d. Khrushchev, meanwhile, has returned from the Ukraine to greet his faithful ally Janos Kadar and the visiting Hungarian delegation.

2. Soviet Forces in Hungary

a. We have no hard evidence to support speculation in yesterday's Washington Post that Soviet troops may soon be withdrawn from Hungary.

b. [redacted]
[redacted]
[redacted]
[redacted]
[redacted]
[redacted]

50X1
50X1
50X1
50X1
50X1
50X1

(Cont'd)

c. On the other hand, U Thant, who is just back from talking with Janos Kadar, says he believes Kadar will take up the matter of withdrawing Soviet troops while in Moscow.

3. UAR - Saudi Arabia

a. The UAR clandestine radio, Voice of the Arab Nation, has, despite our urgent representations in Cairo, again broadcast vicious charges against Saudi leaders for allowing American Jewish troops to enter "holy Islamic territory."

b. The International Red Cross has turned down the Saudi request for an investigation of Egyptian use of gas in Yemen. The Red Cross says the request would have to come from both parties.

NOTES

A. Yugoslavia - West Germany Economic talks between Yugoslavia and West Germany are again close to breaking up.

B. USSR

[Redacted]

C.

[Redacted]

50X1