That is fine as far as it goes. I've already asked the WH if there is a master plan for making the docs available. This morning, OGC and OCA (the committees apparently are upset about this) seemed to think they would be available in a couple of weeks. Mostly I just want the WH to keep us informed. I still don't understand why we weren't in the loop on this.

Didi,

I was thinking we may want to just replay [redacted] guidance she gave over the weekend, slightly modified. I think the best way to get the White House to set a date is to keep sending people their way so they'll follow through.

I think the answer here is that we have to defer to the White House, which is managing a phased rollout of the declassified material. Do we know yet when and how this will ultimately be made publicly available? If not, I will ask the WH directly.

Hi Cynthia

I read with interest David [redacted] ' column this morning in which he says that among the pile of material found at [redacted]'s compound was a letter from his "media adviser" about how to promote AQ. Do you think it would be possible for me to see the letter or at least know the contents? I'll ring later if you think that's feasible. Thanks a lot.

Best
Mike
