MEMORANDUM FOR: DEPUTY DIRECTOR (PLANS)

SUBJECT: DTPILLAR - Liaison with British

1. The following arrangements have been made in accordance with agreements between CIA and the British at the recent London meeting:

a. DTPILLAR's Malaya representative meets regularly with the British at Phoenix Park in Singapore and briefs them on his program in Malaya and Singapore.

b. DTPILLAR's Hong Kong representative meets regularly with Aldington, British Political Advisor, and briefs him on his program in Hong Kong. No programs based in Hong Kong are undertaken without general concurrence of the British.

c. DTPILLAR's president meets frequently with Tull in San Francisco and briefs him generally about overall DTPILLAR programs. The rule of thumb followed is that Tull is told enough about DTPILLAR to secure British cooperation and good will. (The British had requested that such overall briefings be held in Singapore. However, it is considered best for DTPILLAR to control this from San Francisco where an overall view of their operations is had.)

d. Occasional meetings are held between IOB, I&R and British representatives in Washington.

2. It is believed that these arrangements meet the requirements outlined in London.
