Dear Requester:

On 17 February 2021, the Office of the Information and Privacy Coordinator received your 17 February 2021 correspondence seeking records under the Freedom of Information Act for:

Records related to the videogame "Six Days in Fallujah" generated from 2004 through 2010.

This letter serves to acknowledge that CIA has received your request, and to further let you know that CIA has assigned your request the reference number provided above. In future correspondence, please use this number to facilitate this office's location of your case information.

In the event that the Office of the Information and Privacy Coordinator has questions or requires additional information or clarification from you to proceed with processing your request, a representative will contact you. Unless you object, this office will search for CIA-originated records up to and including the date that the Agency begins its search. You may contact this office via telephone at (703) 613-1287, should you wish to withdraw your request.

To check the status of your request, please visit: <https://www.cia.gov/readingroom/request/status> and input the reference number provided above.

Sincerely,

Mark Lilly
Information and Privacy Coordinator
