"I now have very exact reports from the American Zone of Germany concerning the standing and activities of General Parkas. Count Bela Teleki, who came to Paris from Innsbruck for a few days, had contact with him and also with some of his followers. Bela Teleki is a very coolheaded and objective man, who is rather on the right but does not have a dangerous prejudice against people. He says that American quarters in this Munich Zone could very easily "advise" General Parkas to specialize on military problems and in this case he would not be such an intrigue-monger and so obsessed with the desire to play a political role. He says General Parkas has followers but not the unique influence he attributes to himself. There is no doubt that French quarters support him though he did not yet get the practical support promised to him. It is also true that Mr. Sulyok goes on corresponding with him from the USA as well as with the two French Security Officers, Fourcaud and Ortez, with whom he had talks at the time here in Paris.
