Dear Mr. Kashfian:

This is a final response to your 21 January 2013 Freedom of Information Act (FOIA) request, received in the office of the Information and Privacy Coordinator on 21 January 2013, for information or records on the persons (possibly two) whom the Central Intelligence Agency (CIA) formally requested that the Federal Bureau of Investigations (FBI) not interrogate, during the Watergate scandal of the 1970's.

The FOIA requires requesters to "reasonably describe" the information they seek so that professional employees familiar with the subject matter can locate responsive information with a reasonable amount of effort. Commonly this equates to a requirement that the documents must be locatable through the indexing of our various systems. Extremely broad or vague requests or requests requiring research do not satisfy this requirement. Therefore, we decline to process this request.

Sincerely,
