Dear Mr. Leopold:

This acknowledges receipt of and is a final response to your 7 August 2013 Freedom of Information Act (FOIA) request, received in the office of the Information and Privacy Coordinator on 12 August 2013, for records under case number F-2013-01220, which was filed or received by CIA on March 27, 2013. If responsive records have not been turned over to the requester, [you] wish to be added as a requester.

Our records indicate that we have not conducted a search of Agency records on the subject of the request. We advised the previous requester that the FOIA requires requesters to "reasonably describe" the information they seek so that professional employees familiar with the subject matter can locate responsive information with a reasonable amount of effort. Commonly this equates to a requirement that the documents must be locatable through the indexing of our various systems. Extremely broad or vague requests or requests requiring research do not satisfy this requirement. Therefore, we declined to process the request.

Sincerely,

A handwritten signature in black ink, appearing to read "Michele Meeks".

Michele Meeks
Information and Privacy Coordinator
