On the 15/1/42, a Bulgarian detachment searched all Greek houses of Drama on the pretence that they were looking for Communists. Apart from thefts and ill-treatments of relatives of those wanted, some 40 innocent civilians were arrested, 10 of which were executed on the charge of attempting to escape to the M.E.

In February 1942, 30 persons were arrested in Kyrghia for participating in the resistance against the occupation authorities. They were confined in Drama prisons where they daily tortured and beaten. 15 of them died and the others were released a few months later but all their property was confiscated.

In the same period, Bulgarian soldiers killed Athanassios Vlahopoulos in the streets of Poriani village.

On the 11/2/42, Ioannis Papadopoulos and Apostolos Tselepis were arrested without reason in Provata village. They were taken to the Bulgarian military police outpost and were mercilessly beaten. Tselepis died later from his wounds.

In March 1942, a drunken Bulgarian gendarme entered a Greek Caffé in Peramos village (Cavalla) and begun to insult and fire on all present. As soon as the shots were heard, a Bulgarian seaman and an employee rushed in and began beating the 9 civilians who were in the Caffé. One of these was killed and the others taken unconscious to an unknown destination.

In March 1942, 5 peasants were arrested in Nea Peramo (Cavalla) because they were seen in the street at 18.05 hours whilst curfew started at 18.00. They were taken to the Bulgarian Police Station where they ill-treated and tortured so much that two of them Pavlikis and Fotios Chiakoulis died from exhaustion.

On the 16/3/42, Bulgarian in Drama discovered that many Greeks amongst whom also the Municipal employee Iakovos Georgiou were hiding National ensigns, statues, flags, pictures etc. Many inhabitants were arrested as complices in this case and sent to prisons where they were tortured. 2 of them died from hardships, the remainder were released a few months later on payment of colossal sums as caution money.

On the 17/4/42, a Greek peasant was killed by Bulgarian soldier near Rodolivos village (Paggeon).

The following were killed by Bulgarian soldiers in April 1942, in Emmanuel Pappa village (Serras) :- 1) Georgios Pantokas 2) K. Kavlis 3) Thrasias or Terzis and 4) Sillos, employee of an Electrical Company.

During the same period, An. Sharghatsis and Georgios Tsamaridis were killed in Skoutari village (Serras).

CHURCH The persecution of Church and Clergy in the Bulgaro occupied area continue constantly in the most systematic way. An order of the Bulgarian Government gives a delay of residence up to March 1943 to all clergymen of the Bulgaro occupied areas who they do not join the Bulgarian Schisma or take to Bulgarian Nationality. The order officially gives a delay up to March 1943, but persecutions started in August 1942 when no priest was allowed to remain and no services allowed to be conducted in Greek.

- Unheard of acts of vandalism were perpetrated by Bulgarians. Clergymen were the victims because they refused to submit to the pressures of the Bulgarian Government.

- In April 1942, Hrisostomos Abbot of Ikosifonissi Monastery and the cashier Papagrigorios were ill-treated and deported to Bulgaria as hostages.

- In May 1942 Bulgarian gendarmes interrupted a marriage ceremony in Dipotamos village church (Cavalla), arrested the bride, the bridegroom, the relatives and ill-treated the priest carrying him all round the village mocking him.

- In May 1942 the Bulgarians arrested the priest of Koinohoma village (Eleftheropoulos) beat him savagely, shaved his beard and then carried him round the town mocking him.

COMPULSORY LABOUR Compulsory labour has been imposed throughout the Bulgarian occupied Greek territories.

In May 1942 the classes of 1940 and 1941 were called up. Nobody is exempted not even those unfit or invalids. The larger part of the men thus recruited are sent out off Greece and mainly to the Koumanovo plain (Serbian Macedonia). In 1942 a group of 2500 men was sent for compulsory labour to the Northern Bulgarian frontier at Svelingrad near the Danube. Their life is a constant martyrdom. Without food, ragged, without any medical attendance they are condemned to a certain death.

- Through corporal punishment, ill-treatments, hard work, the Greek youth of these areas find themselves in a tragic state. The Bulgarians intention is clearly to annihilate the Greek race. The Official Bulgarian Government uses every possible means in order to attain this end.

- Many of the men mobilised for compulsory labour are put to work in specially mined areas where they die in groups. Even the Bulgarian newspapers report these mass murders caused according to them from unforeseen explosions and landslides in areas where only Greek labour is employed.

- Herebelow we give some figures of people mobilised and areas from which they were taken.

- In August 1942, all the 1943 class was called up for compulsory labour.

- On the 8/5/42 by special order some 700 Greek civilians aged between 22-45 were assembled in Drama and sent to Bulgaria.

- On the 12/5/42 another group of 250 persons sent to Komotini area for compulsory labour.

- On the 14/5/42, 300 persons were sent to Bulgaria from Horisti village and the surrounding areas.

- In May 1942, some 1200 persons from Drama of various ages were sent to Bulgaria.

- In June, a new lot of 900 persons were sent to Komotini area, Stara Zaghora and Ortakii, for construction of fortifications.

- In July 350 persons from Horisti village were sent to Bulgaria.

- In September 1942, 64 persons from Tserepliani (Pageou) village were sent for compulsory labour to Bulgaria.

- On the 7/5/42, 700 persons of the classes 1936-39 from Cavalla, were sent to Sidirokastron and Komotini areas for the construction of fortifications.

- In May 1942, 350 persons and in July 1942, 200 persons from Hrisoupolis area.

- From Praviou area 500 persons of the 1936-39 classes.

- In May 1942, 500 young men from the Serrae area were arrested and sent to Sofia.

- On the 14/5/42, 355 civilians of Sidirokastron, 12 from Lefkothea (Serrae) and 40 from Iraklia (Kato Tzoumaghias) were sent to Sofia.

- Some 1200 persons from Komotini and the surroundings were arrested and sent to Bulgaria up to July 1942.

- Apart from compulsory labour, all Bulgarians in general, officials, gendarmerie, komitadzis and civilians, consider the Greek population of the occupied areas as their slaves.

- It is reported that the Bulgarian Mayor (Drama) asked for a list of all educated young girls of the town's society in order to choose 2 house maids. Most Mayors and Officials use the Greeks for manual labour in their fields. All over the country Greek men and women are forced to work for the Bulgarians.

- On the 1/6/42, 300 Greeks were arrested in the streets of Sidirokastron and sent to Loutra, Sidirokastron area, for compulsory labour and were employed on heavy work for 13 days.

- In Drama 1000 persons are daily used to clean the town and area.

PLUNDERS Under the various excuses, the Bulgarians enter the house of Greek civilians, carrying off everything of value they find. Should something belonging to the army be found, then ill-treatments begin. The responsible is called upon to hand over his most valuable objects or be arrested, imprisoned and bear all further consequences.

An empty gas mask container was found during 1942 and Minas Dimitriadis in Drama was compelled to hand over all his wife's and daughter's valuables.

In March 1942, a number of persons were arrested in Horisti village as communists and a fine of 750.000 Leva was imposed on the village.

During the same month Ioannis Hadzilambrou in Cavalla was tortured for hiding arms. He was released on payment of 6.000 Leva.

On the 15/3/42, Bulgarians entered the flour mill of Hr. Evangelidis in Mesorahi village (Serrae) and demanded payment of 2.000 leva. As he was unable to meet their demands, he was taken to the police station and mercilessly beaten.

In October 1941, Bulgarians attacked Nikissiani village and looted it.

During the same month, Bulgarians looted Ikosifonissi Monastery.

In May 1943, Bulgarians robbed every treasure of Alexandroupolis Churches. Aghios Nikolas Church was looted completely. The Zarifios Academy was completely destroyed. Many years of work were thus destroyed in a few hours. Schools, Barracks and generally everything that was reminiscent of Greek origin was destroyed or looted by the Bulgarian invader.

ACTS OF ARSON The following villages were burnt down in September and October 1941: - Paliambela, Mikrolivanon, Mavrokordato, Kior Ali, Proti, Iliokomi, Kormitsa, Proklofi, Chiourtzik, Mavrolivadi and Pixarion (Drama).

WESTERN THRACE

MURDERS Some 60% of the population of Alexandroupolis and the surrounding have died from starvation and hardships during the slaughters of September & October 1941.-

The death rate in the "Tsimentenia" quarter was enormous. Herebelow, we give only a few names of victims :-

- | | |
|-------------------------|----------------------------------|
| 1) Ioannis Gourkounis | 6) Makris alias Karamcouzos Pan. |
| 2) George Gourkounis | 7) Vassilis Biltis |
| 3) Athanassios Tokalis | 8) Georgios Kioukounis |
| 4) Apostolos Karnavalos | 9) Christos Halafatis |
| 5) Vassilios Galitis | 10) Ioannis Psarountis. |

During the same period 280 young men were executed in Tsatalza village by Bulgarian soldiers and their bodies thrown into a nearby river.

Frangoulis Prefect of Evros was murdered in Didimotihon on the 2/4/42.

Nanos Pashalis, Mayor of Souflion was murdered on the 3/8/42.

On the 27/9/42, 12 Greek civilians were executed without trial in Potamos (Evros) because arms were found in the village.

ARRESTS The following were arrested and imprisoned in September 1941, after being tortured in Xanthi:-

- 1) Dimitri Varzopoulos
- 2) Theodoros Kouyoumonizoglou
- 3) Georgios Tzianoglou
- 4) Papadopoulos Papazacharias
- 5) Dimitrios Papadaleos
- 6) Simeonidis Damianos
- 7) Efthimios Gianakopoulos

The following were arrested in Komotini:-

- 1) Athanassios Gaikoglou
- 2) Dimitri Kristelis
- 3) Panayottis Exarhos
- 4) Demosthene Panaras
- 5) Constandinos Tsambaglis
- 6) Thomas Antoniou

In March 1942, 10 civilians were arrested in Sidirokastron and were interned as hostages in the Ano Tzoumaghias concentration camp.

ILL-TREATMENTS In Komotini all Greek reserve and regular Officers returning from the front, were insulted, beaten and ill-treated by the Bulgarians. Many were found lying in the streets half dead and were taken care of by the inhabitants.

VIOLATIONS On the 26/5/41, the Jewess Sarah Ambot, aged 60- was violated repeatedly by Bulgarian soldiers in Alexandroupolis. Many Greek and Jewish women of the same town have suffered the same fate. Bulgarian soldiers violated the wife of a murdered musulman in the Chiftika quarter.

In May 1941, in Amfitriti village, Bulgarian soldiers kidnapped the 2 daughters of Pehlivanidou. Both girls were found the next day in a very poor state near Agnanda village from constant violation. Their father left unconscious by the kidnapers died from his wounds.

In October 1941, Bulgarian soldiers violated the daughter and wife of Anastasiou Ghousidou and the wives of Yoannis Skarlatou, Yoannis Delli and Georgios Yalamidou, in the Monoklissia village.

DEPORTATIONS-EXILES All intellectuals of Thrace, Scientists, Barristers, Physicians etc. were deported on the 24/9/41. Amongst them is Christos Sianidis, Barrister from Komotini.
