Mr. Lothar Greil Magdalenerstrasse 54 Munich, Germany

Dear Lothar Greil,

Verkauft und Verraten (Sold Out and Betrayed) is brilliantly written and leaves an extremely strong impression with the reader. It is a masterpiece and is completely convincing! You really used your pen skill-fully when you wrote down these experiences. Only this combat spirit can raise Germany up again; otherwise, any thoughts of the future are finished with. They are an American colony - negroes in the most remote areas have more freedom! - and behave accordingly, too. The daily lies about Germany surpass anything in the past; but even the truth about Germany casts shame and disgrace into one's face.

Unheard-of, unbelievable things will take place over there if a handhold does not become available immediately and reason does not take over to a far-reaching extent. Details? Even you would shudder! for entirely new words would have to be employed merely to suggest what Germany has to look forward to! Devilment is perhaps the mildest word for it!

I lived through Flanders, and since then I have not been afraid again, since I have mostly lived among enemies.

Comradely greetings,

(Signed) Hanns Fischer
