Subject: A broadcast by Radio Tallinn on 19 October 1966 monitored in Sweden.

The following is a synopsis of the highlights in the subject broadcast:

Heine's lifestory resembles a scenario for a B-type movie. He himself claims to be the greatest freedom fighter of all. The situation is even more interesting since CIA accuses him of being a Soviet agent.

He was born 15 Sep 1919 in Tartu. Wealthy family. Attended Hugo Treffner Gymnasium. When Soviet government established in 1940 he secretly sneaked up to Town Hall and tore down the worker's flag. Was arrested. Hitler recalled all Germans. Heine's parents repatriated, and a little later the arrested man was sent across the border. Heine joined SS troops, murdered people in Ukraine. Served in the political police and in 1944 continued his freedom fighting mission with SS troops. Was taken prisoner in autumn but already in 1945 managed to escape but was captured near Leningrad. Was sent to a German POW camp in Estonia from where he escaped and became a bandit in the forest. Heine again became an Estonian, he had acted as a German until now.

A quotation follows as to how Heine shot the District of Viljandi officer. "The Evening Star" 20 April 1966 is given as the source.

Was arrested again in 1950 and Heine again changed from Estonian to German, who had not even killed a fly during the five years. In 1956 Heine was released as German POW and sent to his native land - West Germany.

The German Heine went to Canada and again changed to an Estonian. He became overly active. Based on his stories A. Viirlaid wrote a trilogy full of hatred towards Soviet Estonia. Heine organized the movie "Creators of a Legend" and planned to send propaganda balloons to Estonia. He was busy with everything and everywhere. In 1965 a group Soviet Estonian tourists visited Canada. Heine led a group of "very intelligent" people who paraded around a Toronto hotel and used foul language.

Then a man entered the scene who lives in Maryland. He is 39 years old, an engineer with the name of Juri Raus. In addition he was the chairman of former SS men in the LEL since 1961. Three times Juri Raus called Heine publicly a communist agent. On 5 Nov 1964 Heine filed a civil suit against Raus for 110,000 dollars. The hearings started on 11 March but were not completed. Why? A mighty power, the CIA himself interfered. Heine's lawyers wished to present Raus with over 400 questions according to judge Thomsen, but Raus' lawyers pleaded official immunity. CIA Deputy Director Helms filed affidavits where it was stated that Heine was a Soviet agent sent to Canada and that Raus had been a source of information among emigres and Soviet Estonia and ordered Raus to keep quiet. It appears that the matter will be swept under the rug and that Heine will not get his $110,000.

CIA can not reveal its cards since it can not reveal that emigree activities are controlled by them through the likes of Raus. In 1957 however an independent psychopat Heine began to interfere with this well oiled machinery with his stupid activities. There was the fear for loss of control. Instead of CIA agents Heine became the domineering figure. In all likelihood it was decided that the best way to get rid of this nuisance was to declare Heine a Soviet agent. This cost the secrecy of one agent Raus. Nobody can say that Raus' replacement Buschmann is a agent. CIA will deny it without blinking an eye. J.R.
