LEIPZIG, 13 February 56

Dear Comrade:

Thank you very much for your letter of 7 February 1956.

I am happy about your answer and inform you that we are awaiting your arrival on 27 February, so that you will have time for LEIPZIG on 28, 29 February and 1 and 2 March.

We are expecting very many guests this time and have planned everything so that, in spite of the large number of visitors who will come to LEIPZIG, everyone will be provided with the best of accommodations. Therefore, we ask you, if at all possible, to keep the appointment from 27 February to 2 March.

In order to arrange the financial question at the same time, we inform you, that you should pay the travel cost to LEIPZIG and for the Fair identification, which is available in your city at the Craftsmen's Council or Industry and Trade Council. The cost of your stay here and for your return trip will be taken care of by me. In case you have some difficulty in this respect, I would be much obliged to you, if you would write me immediately. Eventually I must send you the authority to stay here, for which I will need the information concerning your vocation and your birthdate.

My friend in LEIPZIG, Herr FRENZEL, has written Herr SCHAEBLE and his wife and invited both. I hopefully ask if you would call Herr SCHAEBLE again, and ask him if he will be able to visit us under the revised conditions.

Let me know right away, what the probable time of your arrival will be so that I can meet you at the main railroad station in LEIPZIG. I will arrange everything else with Comrade HOENNE. With best wishes I remain until we meet again.

Your,
/s/ Robert Mueller
