DECLASSIFIED AND RELEASED BY:
CENTRAL INTELLIGENCE AGENCY
SOURCE METHODS EXEMPTION 3B2B
NAZI WAR CRIMES DISCLOSURE ACT
DATE 2000 2008

1. It is desired that a discreet investigation be conducted on Dr Wolfgang (Wolf) Justin HARTMANN, born on 22 October 1894 in MARIENHEIT am Main, residing at BUNICH 13, Daimlerstrasse 5. A member of the BLACK Office, SUBJECT is associated with the Institut fuer Gegenwartsforschung.

2. During World War I, HARTMANN performed army service in Turkey. Following the war SUBJECT was a prisoner of war in Egypt, and subsequently lived in Argentina for several years. During World War II HARTMANN served in the Brandenburg Division. The commanding officer of a Stabskompanie in August 1940, SUBJECT became commanding officer of 2 Kompanie II Battalion, Lehrregiment Brandenburg in February 1941. HARTMANN was wounded in the hand while serving with 2 Kompanie in Russia in the summer of 1941. In late 1941 SUBJECT was commanding officer of 3 Kompanie II Battalion Lehrregiment Brandenburg at LUDW. In January 1943 HARTMANN was a member of z.b.V 600 of the Brandenburg Division. SUBJECT allegedly attained the rank of Major.

3. In October 1952 HARTMANN reportedly acted as a letter drop for Cerhard WOLFF, Fusi Schmid, (Dr Willi WOLFF), Sergel F. [unclear] or the Institut fuer Gegenwartsforschung. In view of this, technical coverage on SUBJECT was instituted. In December 1952 a member of the BLACK Office, HARTMANN kept in contact with Cerhard WOLFF and Hermann WOLFF from the Institut fuer Gegenwartsforschung in MARIENHEIT. In February 1953 SUBJECT was described as a writer opposed to the remilitarization of Eastern Germany, and, as such, a personality of interest to the Verlag der Nation, official publishing house of the NDP. HARTMANN may have been considered a possible sympathizer by the NDP.

4. A sister of HARTMANN by the name of Stasi HARTMANN resided in 1943 at BUNICH 13, Daimlerstrasse 5.
