ACTION REQUIRED - REFERENCES

1. requests a name check on the following individual who wishes to visit Australia on business.

Franz Paul HUBER amended
 PDOB: 6 April 1912, Munich, Germany
 Remarks: Employed by the AGFA Camera-Werk A.G. at Munich, West Germany which has trade negotiations with Messrs. Henry H. York & Co. Pty. Ltd., 62 Clarence Street, Sydney

- a. All applications by HUBER for Australian business visa have been rejected. The grounds for rejection are a very adverse war time Nazi party record. HUBER is included in the Australian Visa Warning List.
- b. We have now received word that the Department of Immigration have decided to review the HUBER case. A reputable firm of solicitors in Sydney, Messrs. Allan and Henderson have taken up the case because the sponsoring agents Henry H. York & Company, wish to again apply for HUBER to visit Australia.
- c. The only new aspect of this application is the information from the solicitors who claim that Australia is the only country in the world which will not admit HUBER and that he freely visits the United States whenever he has business to conduct there.
- d. Will you please check HUBER for us. We would be interested to confirm that he now has unrestricted visa facilities to enable him to visit the United States.

2. It would be appreciated that if you have any derogatory information on Subject it be cabled to Station for passage to
