(U//~~ATUO~~) CIA Declassification Center

(U//~~ATUO~~) CDC Continues Search for 25-Year-Old Material

(U//~~ATUO~~) Representatives from the CIA Declassification Center (CDC) found an estimated 300,000 pages of 25-year-old classified material that contain CIA equities at the Lawrence Livermore National Laboratory in California. The representatives were on the West Coast during the week of 24-28 June 2002, looking for 25-year-old or older classified material that is subject to the Automatic Declassification provisions of EO 12958. The group found only minor quantities of material at the other California sites, which included the Department of Energy's Special Technologies Laboratory in Santa Barbara, the Naval Postgraduate School in Monterey, the Federal Records Center in San Bruno, and the Hoover Institution in Palo Alto.
