(b)(6)

As her appeal (ISCAP 2006-006) originated with CIA, we wanted to make you aware of this action. As always, let us know if you have any questions. We will keep you informed as to her status.

Best,

John Bell

Afternoon and Company,

(b)(3)

On December 2, 2010, ISCAP received an appeal from Kel McClanahan of National Security Counselors. He is appealing CIA's refusal to process his Mandatory Declassification Request and the subsequent denial of appeal rights. Your case number, EOM-2010-00945 was assigned to Mr. McClanahan's request which pertains to an attempt to obtain a listing of CIA records of the Medical and Psychological Analysis Center and its predecessor bodies. According to the ISCAP bylaws, his request now falls under the jurisdiction of the ISCAP.

Attached are a PDF of the formal material request letter for the document and any ancillary information that was mailed to Mr. Lambert as well as a PDF copy of Mr. McClanahan's appeal to ISCAP.

At your convenience and within 30 days, could you please send along:

- 1) a clean copy of the document in its un-redacted form
- 2) CIA's "best and final offer" redaction proposal
- 3) if no responsive records exist please provide written notification stating so

If the document in question is classified TS or SCI, please hand deliver it at an ISCAP liaisons meeting or use the following DODAAC code for DCS delivery:

Office of Presidential Libraries (Attn: ISOO/ISCAP)

Please use the following address for Secret and Confidential documents:

The National Archives and Records Administration
Information Security Oversight Office
Attn: Interagency Security Classification Appeals Panel
Room 503
700 Pennsylvania Ave. NW

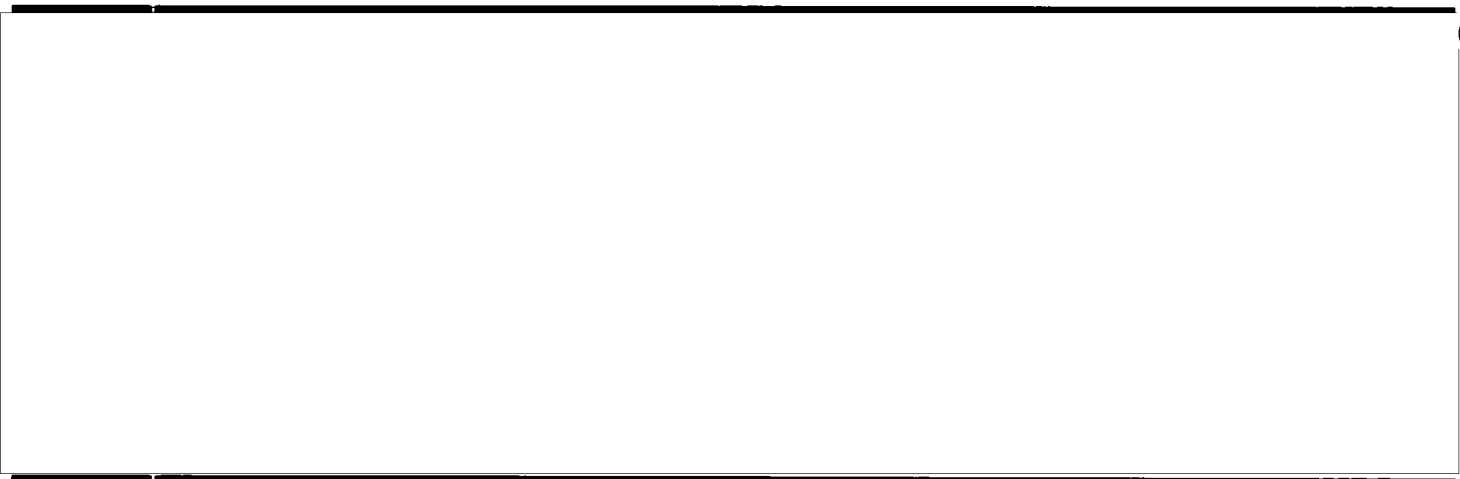

Washington DC, 20408

I'll be away for the next three weeks, but do please contact Chris Hofius or John Bell (both copied on this email) if you have any questions concerning the appeal.

Best Regards,

Neena

EXECUTIVE SECRETARY

William J. Bosanko,
 Director
 INFORMATION SECURITY
 OVERSIGHT OFFICE

Reference: ISCAP Appeal 2006-006

(b)(6)

Dear

(b)(6)

This letter is in further response to your March 6, 2006 appeal to the Interagency Security Classification Appeals Panel (ISCAP). As we recently communicated to you, Executive Order 13526, "Classified National Security Information" (the Order), states that the mandatory declassification review (MDR) provisions of the Order shall not apply to MDR requests submitted to elements of the Intelligence Community by "a person other than an individual as that term is defined by 5 U.S.C. 522a(a)(2)." According to 5 U.S.C. 522a(a)(2), "the term 'individual' means a citizen of the United States or an alien lawfully admitted for permanent residence."

In our letter of November 22, 2010, we asked that you provide proof that you meet one of these criteria. In response, you communicated that you are currently seeking permanent resident status. Therefore, as Executive Secretary, I will extend the deadline previously discussed for furnishing residency status by an additional 90 days. Please provide the ISCAP with proof of your permanent resident status by May 18, 2011 so that the ISCAP can continue to consider your appeal.

If you have any questions regarding this matter, please contact me at (202) 357-5250 or e-mail iscap@nara.gov.

Sincerely,

WILLIAM J. BOSANKO
 Executive Secretary
