- 9. Despite stremuous efforts of certain elements at the top and center of the UGAKI JIS Groups; notably subject, TANAKA Ryukichi and TANAKA Shinichi, rapidly deteriorating and disintegrating "federation" in early Oct. showed tendency to split bitterly...between the Army jangoists, the Army Moderates-Navy EQ clique, and the Navy Moderates-Foreign Office cliques. (p.5) Subject, despite his Army General Staff background and despite his past exemplification (in Navy eyes) of unmitigated and unil teral Armyism, is now viewed with increasing favor for his recent attempts to soften the Army jingoists and to reach a working basis and common policy agreement with Navy and Foreign Office-led factions. (p.8) One of the leaders of the compromise attempt made 10 Oct. to 25 Oct. 1950 to repair the shattered "federation". Under an overall plan, subject would have served on a Board of Advisors. (p.9)

- 14. The connection between the Continental Affairs Research Institute and the KAWABE Kikan is a secret closely guarded on orders of G-2. DOI is an undercover member of the KAWABE Kikan and receives from it both a salary and operational funds with which to support his Institute. The persons who are aware of this fact are TATSUMI Riichi and KAWABE Torashiro, and the G-2 officers concerned. DOI's work for the Kikan consists of supplying it with what information on the USSR he obtains and in analysing wilitary information on the USSR obtained from other Kikan sources.
