Below is a chronology of KUBARK contacts with KAYA Okinori,

As you can see, the Station has never had more than casual contact with him, and this was largely through FURUYA Toru, Chief, CRC.

18 Dec 58 FURUYA Toru, Chief, CRC, told [ ] and [ ] that KAYA was traveling U.S. early 1959 and asked if Dulles might grant him an interview in Washington.

KAYA greatly interested national security matters.

22 Jan 59 Director office begged off because of fears of bad press play which would give JSP ammunition for linking Security Treaty negotiations with internal security and espionage legislation in Japan.

27 Jan 59 Station cabled stating Ambassador saw no objection half-hour briefing if Dulles had time and meeting held without fanfare.

6 Feb 59 Held meeting with Dulles. ~~DISSENSING~~ Made two requests:

a. Closer cooperation between CIA and Japanese
