868. The following information was disclosed in the course of seven contacts with IV-659, during the period 1 November to 12 December 1956:

Rightist leaders are aware of the close relationship between Agriculture and Forestry Minister Kono, Ichiro and Kodama, Yoshio (黒田義之), DOB 19 February 1911, male, Japanese, 302-banchi, Jiyugaoka, Meguro-ku, Tokyo-to. Kodama's underworld power and connections are well known. It is the knowledge of this power and the fear of reprisals from Kodama which have deterred the ultra-nationalist leaders from officially sanctioning the assassination plots against Kono and Prime Minister Hatoyama. Kodama is also one of the strongest behind-the-scene backers of Prime Minister Hatoyama. When the daughter of Tsuji, Masonobu (辻政信), Diet member from Ichikawa-ken and head of Jief Domei (Self Defense League), DOB 11 October 1902, applied for entry to the exclusive women's school run by the wife of the Prime Minister, Tsuji, who had served with Kodama in the Japanese Army in China, approached Kodama and asked him to use his influence to get the daughter into the school. Kodama in turn approached Kono and through him the attendance of Tsuji's daughter to the school was made possible. (B-3)

AGENT'S NOTES: Identifying data for Kodama and Tsuji was obtained from the files of Headquarters, 3d Operations Group (8242), APO 613 on 14 December 1956.

Inquiries are being made to determine the name of Tsuji's daughter and the name of the school run by Mrs. Hatoyama.

869. On 10 December 1956, D-1013 submitted the following information:

On 3 October 1956 - prior to the departure of Prime Minister Hatoyama, Agriculture and Forestry Minister Kono and other delegates to Moscow for the Japan-Soviet peace negotiations, Kodama, Yoshio gave a reception for the entire delegation at the Yaomatsu Restaurant, Mikojima, Sumida-ku, Tokyo-to. Among the 230 persons who were in the reception was Shibayama, Basui (柴山政翠), male, Japanese, leader of an underworld group which controls street stalls and stores in Asakusa, Daito-ku, Tokyo-to. Shimizu (下木), approximate DOB 1929, male, Japanese, has been serving as Kono's bodyguard. Shimizu is one of Kodama's henchmen. (B-3)

From him it was also learned that Toyoda, Takashige (豊田義重), Commander of the Jinkoku Seinen Tai (Youth Martyrs Corps); DOB 12 December 1927; is the only rightist leader who has been able and who is continuing to extort money from Kishi, Nobusuke, the Secretary General of the Liberal-Democratic Party. (B-3)
