4. REPORT OF FINDINGS

The following information pertaining to SUBJECT's background was submitted on 18 August 1951 to this Agent by Informant 3752-T (Evaluation: "B"), who in turn received the information verbally from (General) Sandor HOMLOCK (Evaluation "B"), currently Salzburg representative to the Hungarian National Council and prominent Hungarian DP, and (Dr.) Lazlo 10TH (Evaluation: "C") Hungarian DP and one time Informant of this Sub-Attachment. Both Sources are currently residing in St. Wilgen, near Salzburg, Austria and have known SUBJECT for about three years. The information pertaining to SUBJECT's more recent political activities, was submitted to this Agent on 24 August 1951, by Informant 3762-T (Evaluation: "B") and Informant 3752-T (Evaluation: "B"), who in turn obtained the information during a conversation with SUBJECT, at a social gathering of prominent Hungarian DPs in the home of the aforementioned Dr. Lazlo 10TH, on 22 August 1951. (Information: 3)

In Hungary, SUBJECT was General Secretary of the Hungarian National Bank, Secretary of the Protestant Church Federation, and a prominent leader of the National Conservative Party.

During February 1944, SUBJECT was ordered by the Directors of the Hungarian National Bank to leave the country and take with him 6,000,000 French Francs, to be deposited in France and Switzerland, and to be used by Hungarian refugees in a propaganda campaign against the Germans. Three men were appointed to handle this money, they were: BALACS-BRESSENYEI, at that time Hungarian Ambassador to Switzerland, currently a member of the Hungarian Council in the United States; Erwin WEISER, at that time Hungarian Consul General to Geneva, Switzerland, and SUBJECT.

In January or February 1947, SUBJECT established permanent residence in Berlin, France, where he now owns a large store and deals mainly in women goods. SUBJECT is well known
