1. Traces on Subject were requested in EDM-1284. Other information is contained in EDM-844, EDM-524, EDM-8548 and EDM-8546. All of these documents should be available at FOB.

2. No attempt was made to review the numerous wartime traces here on various KRIBBER's (fms). He could find nothing further on Subject, other than the following rather unlikely traces:

Archives dossier dated 1943
Dreher, Krieger and Company of Buenos Aires is under formation. The components are Enrique Dreher, Maxim Krieger and Francisco Krieger, all German born, naturalized Argentines. The two Krieger's have resided in Argentina since 1938. The partners have been associated for about a month with the object of exporting general merchandise to other South American countries and South Africa. Martino KRIBBER formerly worked for several other firms in Buenos Aires. His son, Francisco KRIBBER, has had no previous commercial connections. All three are characterized as active, competent, and of good moral standing.

RM-47 dated 19 July 1948
Max KRIBBER - one of the campaign directors of the committee formed in Havana, Cuba, in June 1948 to raise $500,000 for the state of Israel.
