KAPOK "...." 4. Iden A (Kenneth W. BANTA) is a typical American businessman in that his primary interest is to make money. He believes that the American Government's expenditure of vast amounts of funds for foreign aid programs is not the most prudent use of our taxpayer's money and that the same goals could be accomplished more effectively if American private business were given the opportunity to assist under-developed countries through economic trade. He cited the recent visits to India and the Middle Eastern countries by Alfred KRUPP and Fritz BERG, president of the Rund Deutscher Industrie, both of whom appear to be making substantial progress in doing exactly what Iden A is referring to. ...."
