Dear _ _

- 1. Alberts Treknais: Ind. Eng. Dep. Braden Copper Co., Sevel, Chile.
- 2. Herberts Teidemanis:worked as driver for the American Army, Labor Battalion, Kaiserslautern 2, P.O.B.561. His wife lived in Karlsruhe, probably c/o Ruepper (Apt. 17 A), Rosenweg 81.

 It was said that he had stayed in West Germany under his true name.

Addresses and working place were correct several years ago.

3. Melcers -in German perhaps Meltzer- was the man with whom I worked in 1942 - 1943. At that time he was introduced as Colonel M, but as I learned now, he was then supposedly only a Captain.

In August 1944, he, who had the rank of Major or Colonel, was supposed to repel the Russian break-throughnnear Jelgava in his capacity as section commander. During the battles he was said to be a dirty "dog". We called those Germans "dogs" who behaved in a bad way toward the Latvian population.

4. Alberts Purins -address unknown- stayed in West Germany after the war. It was said that he worked for some intelligence agency which interrogated naval detachments about the situation in Latvia after the war. A.P.was suspicious because of my interrogations of the two Lange's [it is probably meant that the Lange's incriminated him in the interrogations].

5. Persijs Zauls: former chief of the Investigation Department of the Latvian State Police. Address unknown. At present he lives in the States, in Massachusetts, near his friend Karlis Ozolinš, a former circus director in Riga, whose address is: Hancock Road, Star Route, Williamstown, Mass.

in 1943

- 6. Lettlander; who/jumped off into Latvia with Russian and Latvian Communist parachutists and who knew very much about sabotage training schools in Russia, stayed in Italy under the name Aivars after the war. At the present time he lives in Australia. His true name might be Puplaksts, but I am not too sure.
- 7. Until now, I have, unfortunately, no information about the man (Man) in New York.

Regard,

Ed.
